Newlyweds to live in Ajax

By Betty Pegg
GREENWOOD — St. Paul's United Church, Bancroft, was the setting of a wedding July 28th when Patsy Yvon Young was united in marriage to David Gerald Henning in a double ring ceremony. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mural Young of R.R. 5, Bancroft, and the groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Henning of Greenwood. The Rev. Mr. Weese officiated at the ceremony. The church was decorated with white, blue and yellow flowers, and white bows and red roses were on the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length empire-waisted gown of white Chantilly lace, with the skirt edged by ruffles. A veil of illusion, outlined in Chantilly lace, fell from a jewelled headpiece and formed a train. She carried a semi cascade of red roses.

Attending the bride as matron of honour was Faye Haas of Bramalea, sister of the bride, and as bridesmaids, Shirley Young of Bancroft, sister of the bride, Gloria Henning of Whitby, sister-in-law of the groom. They were dressed in floor length empire-waisted polyester gowns the matron of honour, in yellow, and the bridesmaids in blue. They wore white hats with large, undulating brims, and carried nosegays of blue and yellow flowers.

The groom was attended by Allan Haas of Bramalea, brother-in-law of the bride, as best man, while the ushers were Edward Henning of Greenwood and Lloyd Henning of Whitby, brothers of the bridegroom.

The reception was held at the Bancroft Legion Hall where the guests were received by the mother of the bride, wearing a floor-length gown of tangerine polyester with long chiffon sleeves, and a corsage of white roses. She was assisted by the mother of the groom who wore a floor-length sleeveless gown of gold and yellow nylon crepe de chene, and a corsage of yellow and bronze snapdragons and baby mums.

For a wedding trip to points in eastern Ontario, the bride changed to a full-skirted, street-length, white dress with accents of purple. Upon their return, will take up residence in Ajax.

Out of town guests were present from Bramalea, Greenwood, Whitby, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Stouffville, Newcastle, Peterborough, Beamsville, Wolverine, Michigan, and many communities in the Bancroft area.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Clarke on their 59th wedding anniversary which was celebrated August 5 with their daughters Muriel of Oshawa, Evelyn of Pickering and grandson Lee Appleton, Whitby.

Rev. Fleetham, who is presently on vacation, will spend part of his holiday at Five Oaks. There will be no church service until September 2.

The General meeting of U.C.W. will be held, August 16, at 8 p.m. in the church.

Mrs. E. Kimberley of Beamsville, visited with her sister, Mrs. McLean recently.
