Thanks to St. Nick Kim came to Town

STOUFFVILLE — Through the years, jolly old St. Nicholas has gained credit for bearing many acceptable gifts to appreciative residents here. But not likely he's ever been thanked for bringing pretty 15 year old Kim Frampton to Stouffville.

No, she didn't ride in aboard 'Blitzen' or hide away in a bagful of toys, but she did arrive (indirectly at least) after St. Nick completed a pre-Christmas trek into town.

"We heard my aunt tell of the Kinsmen's Santa Claus Parade," she said, "and since a place the size of Stouffville was what we were looking for, we decided to come here."

That was four years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Frampton, their daughter Kim, and a pet wire-haired terrier called Kelly, reside in a lovely home at 532 Rupert Avenue in The Ponderosa. Kim is The Tribune's Teen Pick of the Week.

Kim is actually a native of Ireland, but left there when only 5 months old. Before moving to Stouffville, she lived in Toronto and St. Albert, Alberta, north of Edmonton.

Kim loves to travel and while still uncertain as to her future vocation, her choice for the present is an airline stewardess. She's been back to Ireland several times and only recently enjoyed a holiday trip by air to Hollywood, California.

Kim is a former majorette with the famed Scarborough 'Elainettes.' She enjoys cycling, tennis, swimming, hockey and baseball. She makes most of her own clothes.

This summer she's been kept busy as a daytime babysitter. She enjoys the children as much as the children enjoy her.

But come September, it's back to the books, as a student in Grade 11 at S.D.S.S.
