STOUFFVILLE
An Orange Lodge service was held Sunday evening in memory of Harold Elson a respected Brother of the Goodwood chapter for more than 20 years and a Past Master of Black Knight Lodge 572.

Mr. Elson, a resident on Tenth Line North, Stouffville, passed away suddenly at his daughter's home in Markham, August 9.

The deceased was born at Glasgow, Ont., 63 years ago, to James Elson, the local miller and his wife, the former Janet Booth. In June, 1929, he married Viola Alsop, also a resident of the area, and they settled in Uxbridge Twp. where Mr. Elson farmed until moving to Stouffville in 1950. On taking up residence in the village, he joined the staff of Stouffville Machine and Tool.

Mrs. Elson survives her husband; also daughters, Ruth (Mrs. Mike Miller), R.R. 3, Newmarket, Marjorie (Mrs. Lawrence Norton), Claremont, June (Mrs. Douglas Ward), Stouffville, Helen (Mrs. Allan Badgerow), Markham, a brother John of Musselman's Lake, sisters, Annie (Mrs. Jack Wallace), Uxbridge, Lena (Mrs. Jim Davis), Muss. Lake and 18 grandchildren. A daughter, Nelda, predeceased her father.

Rev. Douglas Davis conducted the service from O'Neill Funeral Home, August 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Shaw sign the register following their marriage in St. James Presbyterian Church, Stouffville. The bride is the former Kathy Sheridan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheridan, Stouffville, R. R. 1.

Kathy Sheridan is pretty bride

Grandmother attends ceremony

STOUFFVILLE — Spring flowers decorated St. James Presbyterian Church for a lovely ceremony solemnizing the wedding of Kathy Sheridan and Gerard Shaw, April 21.

Kathy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheridan, R.R. 1, Stouffville, wore a gown of white French crepe. Her long train was trimmed with daisies and she carried a bouquet of roses and daisies.

Her bridesmaids, Marilyn Sheridan, Sharon Bentley and Gwen Sheridan, carried nosegays of mixed blossoms. Ronnie Duce, the groom's nephew, was ringbearer. Wendy Sheridan, the bride's niece, her flower girl.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Shaw of Sharon, was assisted by his best man, Ian Davenport, Newmarket. Tony Shaw and John Sheridan were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of orange sheer and the groom's mother, a floor-length green sheer dress. After the ceremony, conducted by Rev. F. H. Cromey and Donald Donaghey, the wedding reception was held in the Masonic Hall, Stouffville.

Guests at the wedding included the bride's 87-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Ralph Willis; relatives from Welland, North Bay, Huntsville and Orillia.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Mary Richardson of Rexdale, was the organist at the church, and Carolyn Sheridan, the vocal soloist.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw are residing in Fauquier, Ont.

Steam show

UXBRIDGE TWP. — The sounds will be chug, chug, and puff, puff, puff, Aug. 25, when the Uxbridge-Scott Historical Society presents its second annual Steam and Antique Show, on the grounds of the Quaker Hill Museum.

The location is one mile west of Uxbridge Town, and a quarter mile north. The starting time is 1:30 p.m.

Features will include a pre-1900 threshing machine (in operation), steam engines, gas tractors, antique cars and other pieces of antique machinery.

Activities will extend over into Sunday, Aug. 26. The Museum, once the Quaker Hill school, will be open to the public. Admission is $1 for adults and 50¢ for children.
