Greenwood team tourney champs

By Betty Pegg

GREENWOOD—Greenwood's senior fastball team won it all, Saturday, in a tournament held in Greenwood Park. They defeated Udney for the championship, with the finals completed Sunday. The Udney club was coached by Earl Gauslin, no stranger to Greenwood fans. In the junior division, Bradford took the Title, winning quite handily over Greenwood Jrs. The weekend of activity was sponsored by the Recreation Association and proved very successful.

Rosalie Brooks attended a party, Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas, Stouffville. The occasion was their daughter Susan's 13th birthday.

Janice Skinner spent the weekend with her parents, Janice is training for a nurse at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

Timmy and Eric Wright of Courtice, visited last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hill.

Mrs. George Todd of Goodwood spent the weekend with her daughter, Lorraine Barlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pegg entertained members of the Claremont Citizens' Band, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Malcolm and Randy of Guelph, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hicks.

The ladies are reminded of the general meeting, U. C. W., Thursday (tonight), at 8 p.m. Mrs. I. McLean is in charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Saunders and children, and Mrs. Hazel Mears of Markham, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hicks and family.

Pipeline 'loop' under construction near Claremont

The construction of a "loop" in the natural gas line, that crosses the Brock Road, south of Claremont, is now underway, covering a distance of about seven miles. The pipe will parallel the original line, extending from east to west.

Team travels

Parents stay home

By Rene Rennie

CLAREMONT—When Claremont's Squirt fastball team travelled by bus to Springbrook, Saturday, to compete in the first game (second round) of the Ontario Playoffs, only two parents of the thirteen boys accompanied the club. Two others went by car. I do not understand the mothers and fathers of the other nine players. Apparently they haven't the time (or refuse to take the time) to support these little lads from the stands and assist financially with the cost of transportation. On this occasion, the Coach was required to fill a two-fold roll, including being a baby-sitter. In spite of the obvious lack of parental support, Claremont won 24-3.

Claremont's Midget boys won their first game (second round) of the playoffs, beating Aberfoyle 4-1, after edging Kilbride 5-4.

The Juvenile girls were defeated two-straight by Hillsburg, 16-11 and 17-6, after gaining a bye into the second round of their playoff series.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Redshaw and Brian are spending their holidays on a trip to Newfoundland.

Mrs. Dave MacDonald, Vicky, Ross and David, are enjoying a holiday visit with Mrs. MacDonald's parents in Nova Scotia.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Budd were - Mr. and Mrs. Dave MacKay, Donna and Daren of Burke's Falls. They attended the wedding of Susan Budd and Larry Jones in Stouffville, with the reception later in the Claremont Legion Hall.

Members of the Claremont Lions and Lionettes joined with Stouffville in hosting 37 Lions and their wives from Kentucky. An outdoor barbecue was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Less Parker, conc. 7, plus many other forms of entertainment, Thursday through Sunday. Visitors at homes here included - Mr. and Mrs. N. Harvey Willian with Mr. and Mrs. Earle Pilkey; Mr and Mrs. Otis Reid with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ward; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grines with Mr. and Mrs. Don Tufford; Mr. David Price and Mr. Bobby Heady with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ward.

The Juvenile boys' ball team defeated Greenwood Jrs., at a tournament in Greenwood, Saturday, but later lost 10-1 to Greenwood Srs.

Scottish visitors

Mr. and Mrs. James Kiloh fro Aberdeen, Scotland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Greenbury, Church St., Stouffville. Jame is Mr. Greenbury's nephew.
