Rev. Howard Minaker
Recently I noticed in The Tribune, a third of a page advertising the New Construction Safety Act. This legislation makes safety regulations the lawful duty of everyone from the contractor down to the workman. Any violation can bring a fine of $10,000, and 12 months in jail. This sounds like one of the most severe laws on safety passed for some while. How utterly incredible to admit we have to force people to protect themselves. I have watched pedestrians dash across several lanes of traffic, amidst screeching brakes and a chorus of horns, to catch a bus.

Does it seem possible that our courts should have to protect children from wilful neglect by parents? It seems unthinkable that parents or any adult could beat a baby to death. Yet, this has happened too frequently. However, let us think of a more terrible neglect — a more dreadful danger. This is moral bankruptcy and spiritual barrenness.

We are spiritual beings first and natural creatures second. The Bible says we are Spirit, Soul and Body. God's standard of holiness, His code of ethics, His requirements for heaven have never changed. Christian conduct in a life is not produced by legislation, but by regeneration. God's Word says, "Therefore, if any man be in Christ he is a new creature, old things have passed away and behold all things have become new." Little does it matter what commentators, higher critics, agnostics, skeptics or mental genius say or think about eternal issues.

God says, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him, neither can he know them because they are spiritually discerned."

Jesus said to Nicodemus, a brilliant religious leader, "Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." This is eternal safety!

Lois Dunn, a staff employee at Union Villa, Unionville, 3 1/2 years, was honored at a surprise party, Aug. 15. On her leaving, she was presented with several gifts, including a gold locket being admired here by Betty Downs, a staff member. Mrs. Dunn (left) has been with the Villa since its opening.

Man charged with abduction

PICKERING — A 12-month suspended sentence was handed down in Whitby provincial court when William Arnott, a 36-year-old resident of Dunbarton, pleaded guilty to the charge of abduction. Arnott, who apparently opened his home as a drop-in centre for young people, was arrested and charged with abducting a 15-year-old Ashburn girl from school without her father's permission, June 15.

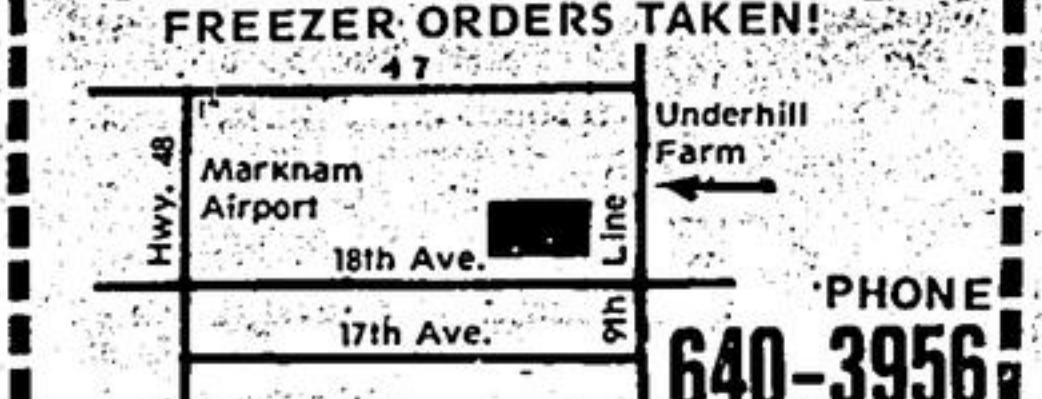

The accused was on probation from a previous conviction.

New (deputy) deputy clerk

UXBRIDGE TWP. — Walter Taylor of Goodwood has become the 'deputy' Deputy Clerk of Uxbridge Twp. Mr. Taylor, who was a member of the administrative staff from 1967-71, is filling in for Mrs. Alice Stewart who is on leave-of-absence from her position as deputy clerk for a few months.
