

Peewee pitcher fires 1-hitter

By Rene Resnik

CLAREMONT — Janice Lehman, Claremont's accomplished softball thrower, was only one pitch short of a no-hitter, Thursday, in an O.R.S.A. playoff game against Fonthill. The winners belted their rivals 22-1 with the artful hurler putting three strikes past 19 batters. She walked only one. In the return contest, Saturday, Claremont made a clean sweep of the series, with a 39-5 victory. The local gals now advance to the Ontario Finals against Brookville.

The Bantam boys were edged by Inglewood 5-4 in the first game of their series. The second contest was scheduled for Claremont, Tuesday.

The Squirt boys downed Brookville 11-5, in their initial encounter, with Daryl Norton on the hill. Game two was in Brookville, Monday.

Claremont were winners of a 5-team tournament in Stouffville, Saturday, with softball entries from Aurora, Newmarket, Ratcliff Lumber, Stouffville and Claremont. The champs downed Aurora 9-3 and defeated Ratcliff's 10-8. Grant Norton and Jim Redshaw handled the hurling chores for Claremont. The trophy was presented to coach Jack Bates and club captain Ron Evans. Claremont will host the tourney next year.

The Senior Citizens Club enjoyed a bus trip to the C.N.E., Tuesday, and stayed for the grandstand performance.

Peaney Burrows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burrows of Brougham, and Robert Starr, were married in Oshawa, Saturday. Guests from Claremont and area included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hopkins; Mrs. Albert Samarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd MacGregor; Mrs. B. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradshaw; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hockley; Suzanne Hockley and Bruce Malcolm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Curtis of Havelock; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Curtis of Newfoundland; Bruce Curtis of Havelock and formerly of Claremont, attended the wedding of Michael Curtis and Brenda Ramsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ramsay of Brougham, Saturday. The reception followed in the Claremont Legion.

The Tuesday Afternoon Bowling League resumes Sept. 11 at 1 p.m. Ladies who participated last year plus those who wish to be on the 'spares' list, are asked to register for another season of good fun and recreation. All games will be played in Stouffville.

Regular church services resume Sept. 1. Sunday School classes reconvene, Sept. 9.

The Evening Unit of the U.C.W. will meet at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Britton, Mrs. Rhoda Almack in charge of the program. The roll call is a church you visited this summer.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Timms were, Tammy Atwell, a great niece, and Elaine Maltby, a niece, of R.R. 4, Brampton.

Mrs. Rosemary Timms visited with her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Norm Martin, of Inglewood, Sunday, before attending the Bantam Boys softball game.

The Carruthers family held a picnic supper, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilnot Hill. Attending were Mrs. Hazel Carruthers, Barb Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Redshaw, Greg, Lance and Chad; Mr. and Mrs. Randy Carruthers, Doreen, Judy, Rae, Bill, John, Allen, Carol, Susie, Steve, and Brian; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Carruthers, Sherri and Donna; Mr. and Mrs. C. Provis; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Uzzell; Ken Meredith, Olive Vine, Eva Towner and Linda Smith.

Visiting for a week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jones, is Wanda Postill of Newmarket.

Say farewell to Greenwood area families

By Betty Pegg

GREENWOOD — Two families, leaving their homes in Greenwood, will be missed in this community. On Friday evening, a large crowd gathered at the Community Park for a farewell corn roast in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Staley and family. They were presented with a marble-top table. The Ralph Hyatt family will move from the area, Sept. 1. They were presented with a going-away gift at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgie Pegg, Monday night. The Hyatts are moving to Cameron, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Post and family have moved into the Staley residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Middleton of Buffalo visited, with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Middleton and family.

Mrs. W. A. Brown is a patient in Oshawa Hospital where she underwent eye surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morden have returned from a week's trip to Manitoulin Island, Sarnia and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pegg and other members of the Claremont Citizens' Band were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George Pegg at their cottage at Udora, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Byers, Lloyd and Nancy Morden, dined with Mr. and Mrs. Doug Morden and family, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Grant Pascoe and children have returned from a visit to Pigeon Lake with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Robertson have returned from a vacation on the East Coast. On Sunday, they entertained their family. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Robertson and boys; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Saunders and children and Mr. and Mrs. David Robertson and family.

Meetings of the U.C.W. will also start next week with Unit 3 being hosted by Mrs. Pat Beach, Sept. 4; Unit 2 at the home of Mrs. Mary McLean, Sept. 6, at 2 p.m.; and Unit 1 at the residence of Mrs. Herb Middleton, Sept. 12.
