What's going on

Church holds harvest service

Ringwood Congregational Christian Church will observe its annual "Harvest Home" service this Sunday, Sept. 9. Guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service will be Ian Wilson of England, with music by the Presbyterian Church Children's Choir. Rev. Ronald Viessmeyer will preach at the 7 p.m. service and Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Warwood of Goodwood will provide the musical presentation.

Auditions The Stouffville Players will hold auditions for their fall production in the Anglican Church, Stouffville, on Sept. 10th and 12th, at 8 p.m. The play is Jean Kerr's "Poor Richard", a 3-act comedy. To be cast are 3 males (all in their thirties); 2 females (one early twenty and the other thirty-five). Production dates are Nov. 22, 23, 24. Director is Gord Ness (640-2744).

Return from North Howard Aiken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Aiken has returned from a visit up north with Mr. and Mrs. James Irwin, formerly of Stouffville. Mr. Irwin is the principle of Fraserdale Public School which is about 20 miles south of Moosonee, Ont.

Injured Friends will regret to learn that Mrs. Christie Armstrong, Albert St., has had the misfortune to fall and break her hip. She is presently in York County Hospital, Newmarket. Miss Ruth Nendick, a niece from London, England, has been visiting with the Armstrongs.

Arts Foundation A "Garage Sale" in support of the Unionville Arts Foundation will be held at Crosby Arena, Main Street, Unionville, at 10 a.m. The Foundation's main objective is to promote Canadian talent, interest in the arts, and the preservation of historical sites in Old Unionville. Further information may be obtained by phoning 297-3093. Donations of saleable items will be appreciated.

From New Zealand Mr. and Mrs. Basil Prout of North Auckland, New Zealand were recent visitors at the farm of Victor Foote, South St., Stouffville. Mr. Prout is connected with the Dept. of Agriculture, in New Zealand and visited beef and dairy farms in this area as well as the John Mann auction sale.

A brother and sister, former Markham District High School students, received university diplomas at the same time. T. Lawrence Marshall graduated with his doctorate in philosophy from Colorado State University this summer and his sister, Margaret Ann obtained her BSc (Hon) in Biological Studies at Guelph Agricultural College.

Graduate same year

MARKHAM — A brother and sister, former students of Markham District High School, received university degrees in the same year.

T. Lawrence Marshall, after studying three years at Colorado State University, was awarded his doctorate in philosophy this summer.

After he obtained his B.S.A. and M.Sc. degrees from Guelph University, Larry interrupted his studies to gain practical experience by working for the federal and provincial governments at Saskatoon. Dr. Marshall, with his wife and son, is living in Halifax where he accepted a position with the Resources Development Branch of the Fisheries Service, under Environment Canada.

Marshall obtained her BSc (Hon) in Biological Studies at Guelph this spring. She is now enrolled in the School of Graduate Studies at the University of Toronto to work on a masters degree.

However, Margaret Ann considered her future further and decided to enter the Ontario College of Education this fall.

Garfield Smith, who received a Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Waterloo in May, is now employed by International Harvester in Hamilton. Garfield is a graduate of Stouffville District Secondary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Randy William Lee were married May 26 in the Melville United Church by Rev. D. McPhee. The bride, the former Barbara Jean Miller of RR2 Markham and groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lee, 9th Line Stouffville, honeymooned in Nassau, Bahamas. The happy couple are now residing in Stouffville.

Lacey - Douglas wedding

STOUFFVILLE Dawn Elizabeth Lacey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.P.E. Lacey, R.R.3 Newmarket, and former pupil of Stouffville District Secondary, was married to Larry Walter Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Douglas, R.R.5, Stratford, at Trinity Anglican Church, Aurora, Saturday, August 25.

Rev. John E. Speers of Trinity Church in Barrie and Rev. Fr. A. McMahon of St. Patrick's Church, Schomberg, officiated. The bride wore a full-length gown of white peau de broche with lace bootee, a train and a full veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Kindergarten tots start fall term

By Mrs. W. Sandle VIC SQUARE — It's that time of year again when children go happily or reluctantly back to school after a long summer break from studies. Starting school for the first time in this area are Kindergarten pupils.

Susan Boynton, Charlotte Frisby and Brent Moorby, Kari Bewell, Mark Brumwell, Mark Petty and Laurie Tyndall are first year students at High School.

Church service resumed Sept. 2, following four weeks vacation. Because of the heat, it was held in the Sunday School room. James Bewell was in charge. From next Sunday on, the church services will commence at 11:30 a.m.

The September meeting of the W.I. has been changed from its regular date to Sept. 13. Members and friends are asked to meet at the Community Centre at 7 p.m. for a tour, by car, of Edwards Gardens in Toronto.

Birthdays Norman Tyndall, (Sept. 7); Sherry and Shelly Brumwell who will be 12, Sept. 7.

Charming wedding

STOUFFVILLE Christ Church was the setting for a charming candle-light wedding ceremony, Aug. 25, when Valerie Jeanette Harrott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrott of Hawthorne Ave., was united in marriage to Ian Blake Mariatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mariatt of 9th Line North. The Rev. F.M. Miller officiated.

The bride wore a long gown of white linen and a wide-brimmed hat of white straw. The Matron of Honor, Mrs. Elaine McFadden, and junior bridesmaid, Martha Harrott, were gowned alike in apricot, and wore straw hats to match the white flocking on their dresses.

The groomsmen, Stephen Barker, and ushers, Mark and Stephen Harrott, were dressed in chocolate brown. Floral bouquets in shades of yellow and apricot decorated the church. The reception, dinner and dance followed at Summit View Gardens in Richmond Hill. Guests were present from Cobourg, Port Perry, Peterborough, Toronto, Oakville, Carleton Place, St. George, London, Niagara Falls and Lewiston, New York.
