Come home to Brougham Golden Wedding couple honored

BROUGHAM - It was a "homecoming" and an "open house", all in one for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Saturday, in the lower auditorium of St. John's United Church.

For Brougham was their "home" up until December, 1968, when they moved to Whitby.

The "open house" was in honor of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. They welcomed a steady stream of visitors, both afternoon and evening; many from a distance.

Mr. Hamilton was born just west of Brougham, the son of Milfred and Ada Hamilton. Later, he moved to a farm on the fifth concession of Pickering, and returned there with his new bride, following a honeymoon trip by train to Napanee and Kingston.

Mrs. Hamilton, the former Cora White, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James White of Pickering Village. The ceremony, Oct. 24, 1923, was performed by Rev. Wm. A. Brunner of the Pickering Methodist Church. A framed certificate, recalling the important occasion, was adorned by friends, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton are the proud parents of two daughters, Beulah (Mrs. Donald Duncan) of Brooklin; Kathleen (Mrs. Gordon Wagg) of Stouffville; and twelve grandchildren.

The honored couple were the recipients of many cards and beautiful bouquets of flowers. Among the telegrams were messages of congratulations from Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau; Governor-General and Mrs. Roland Michener; and Premier William Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, formerly of Brougham and now living in Whitby, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Saturday, with a reception in the lower auditorium of St. John's United Church. Jim Thomas
