

4-H members honored

DURHAM REGION
Several farm community young people were honored recently at the 23rd annual Oshawa Kiwanis 4-H and Junior Farmer Award Dinner. Approximately 25 Kiwanians played host to 55 4-H members of the South Ontario 4-H Community, Brougham Junior Club and the South Ontario 4-H Dairy and Field Crops Clubs, plus the Dairy Princess and representatives of agricultural agencies at a dinner in the Kedron United Church.

In addition to cash awards and 4-H achievement plaques presented to all 4-H members completing their year's work, special awards were presented. Tim O'Connor, was 1973 winner of CKLB Radio Station Trophy for the first prize exhibit of grain in South Ontario 4-H clubs.

The Toronto Dominion Bank Awards of $15 to the club members receiving the highest score in their year's work went to Heather Richardson and Cam Jaynes.

Heather Richardson also brought home the South Ontario 4-H Community Club Leader's Trophy and Cam Jaynes won the Ideal Dairy Plaque for the Champion Holstein Heifer.

Receive new jackets

Coach Peter Stover and manager Monty McEwen attended a ceremony in the Stouffville Legion Hall, Nov. 2, where players of their Pee-wee hockey team, 1972-73, were presented with new jackets. It's the second year the Legion has made such a generous donation. The presentation was in charge of Alex Fox, the immediate past president, and followed an evening banquet. The coach and manager received engraved cigarette lighters.

Placing first in dairy showmanship, Pat Reid took the Jackson Supply Limited Trophy. Her second prize of the night was the Lloyd Metcalf Real Estate Trophy for the Champion 4-H Dairy Showman in the 4-H open section.

Salary up — raise too

YORK CITY — The teachers' negotiating committee is requesting a salary schedule that would result in an average increase of $1,798, with individual increases ranging from $1,300 to $2,250, points out John Honsberger, Chairman of the Board's Negotiating Committee.

In general, continues the chairman, the higher the salary, the greater the raise. "Even with the fast eroding dollar of today, the Board would find it difficult to justify to the taxpayer a salary increase of $2,250 for a teacher now receiving over $15,000," he says.

The Claremont Co-op Trophy for first placing dairy showmanship in the Brougham Junior Club went to Wendell Werry and the Ideal Dairy Plaque for the Champion Ayrshire Heifer was won by Fred Sharpe.

Mr. Honsberger goes on: "The present offer, on which the Board is paying, includes an average increase over last year's schedule of $875 per teacher. Every teacher is receiving at least $700 more than last year's figure, and some are getting as much as $1,300. The chairman, in his statement makes it clear that the committee's latest offer is by no means a final position.
