

Mrs. Alex Schneider

Claremont loses Christian lady

CLAREMONT — On Nov. 13, the Claremont community lost a respected Christian person, a wonderful neighbor and friend, in the passing of Mrs. Alex Schneider in Scarborough Centenary Hospital.

Mrs. Schneider suffered a heart attack following a period of declining health due to cancer. She was 66.

Mrs. Schneider, the former Annie Rose Irene Woodland, was born in Toronto, but moved to Goodwood with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodland, at age 7. She continued to live there until entering North Bay Normal School to train as a teacher. She held positions at Wattenwyl, Sixth Line, Uxbridge and McKellar. Following her marriage, she moved to Claremont where she resided 41 years.

She was a member of the Claremont Baptist Church.

The late Mrs. Schneider took great pleasure in her family, her home and her garden, yet her life touched many in the community as well.

In her quiet, practical way, she was a source of encouragement and strength to countless persons.

Within her church, she served as Sunday School teacher, choir member and deaconess. She also supported several orphans through World Vision and was a faithful worker for the Bible Society.

This poem, copied by Mrs. Schneider shortly before her death, reveals in essence, her approach to life.

The clock of life is wound but once.
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour.
Now is the only time you own,
Live life with a will.
Place no faith in tomorrow.
The hands may then be still.

Surviving, besides her husband, are four daughters, Ivy (Mrs. Ross Wideman), Altona; Jean (Mrs. Jack Hall), Claremont; Mary (Mrs. Stan McMullen), Claremont; Joyce of Scarborough; nine grandchildren, Paul, Harold, Lois and Norman Wideman; Janice, Steven and Christopher Hall; Ron and Gary McMullen; and two brothers, Harry Woodland of Goodwood, and Alf Woodland, Toronto.

The funeral service was held Nov. 16, from Claremont Baptist Church, with interment, Claremont Union Cemetery.

Although she will be sadly missed, the message, in keeping with the quality of her life and faith, was one of hope and victory. Participating were Rev. Albert Luck, minister of Claremont Baptist Church; Dr. H. S. Hillyer of Toronto and a former minister of Claremont Baptist; and Rev. John Torrance of Wiaraton, one of Mrs. Schneider's former Sunday School pupils.

Pall bearers were Paul Wellman, Bob Torrance, Gordon Radcliff, Edgar Ward, Jack Herbert and Leonard Haddow. Honorary pall bearers were Joseph Empringham and Milton Pegg.

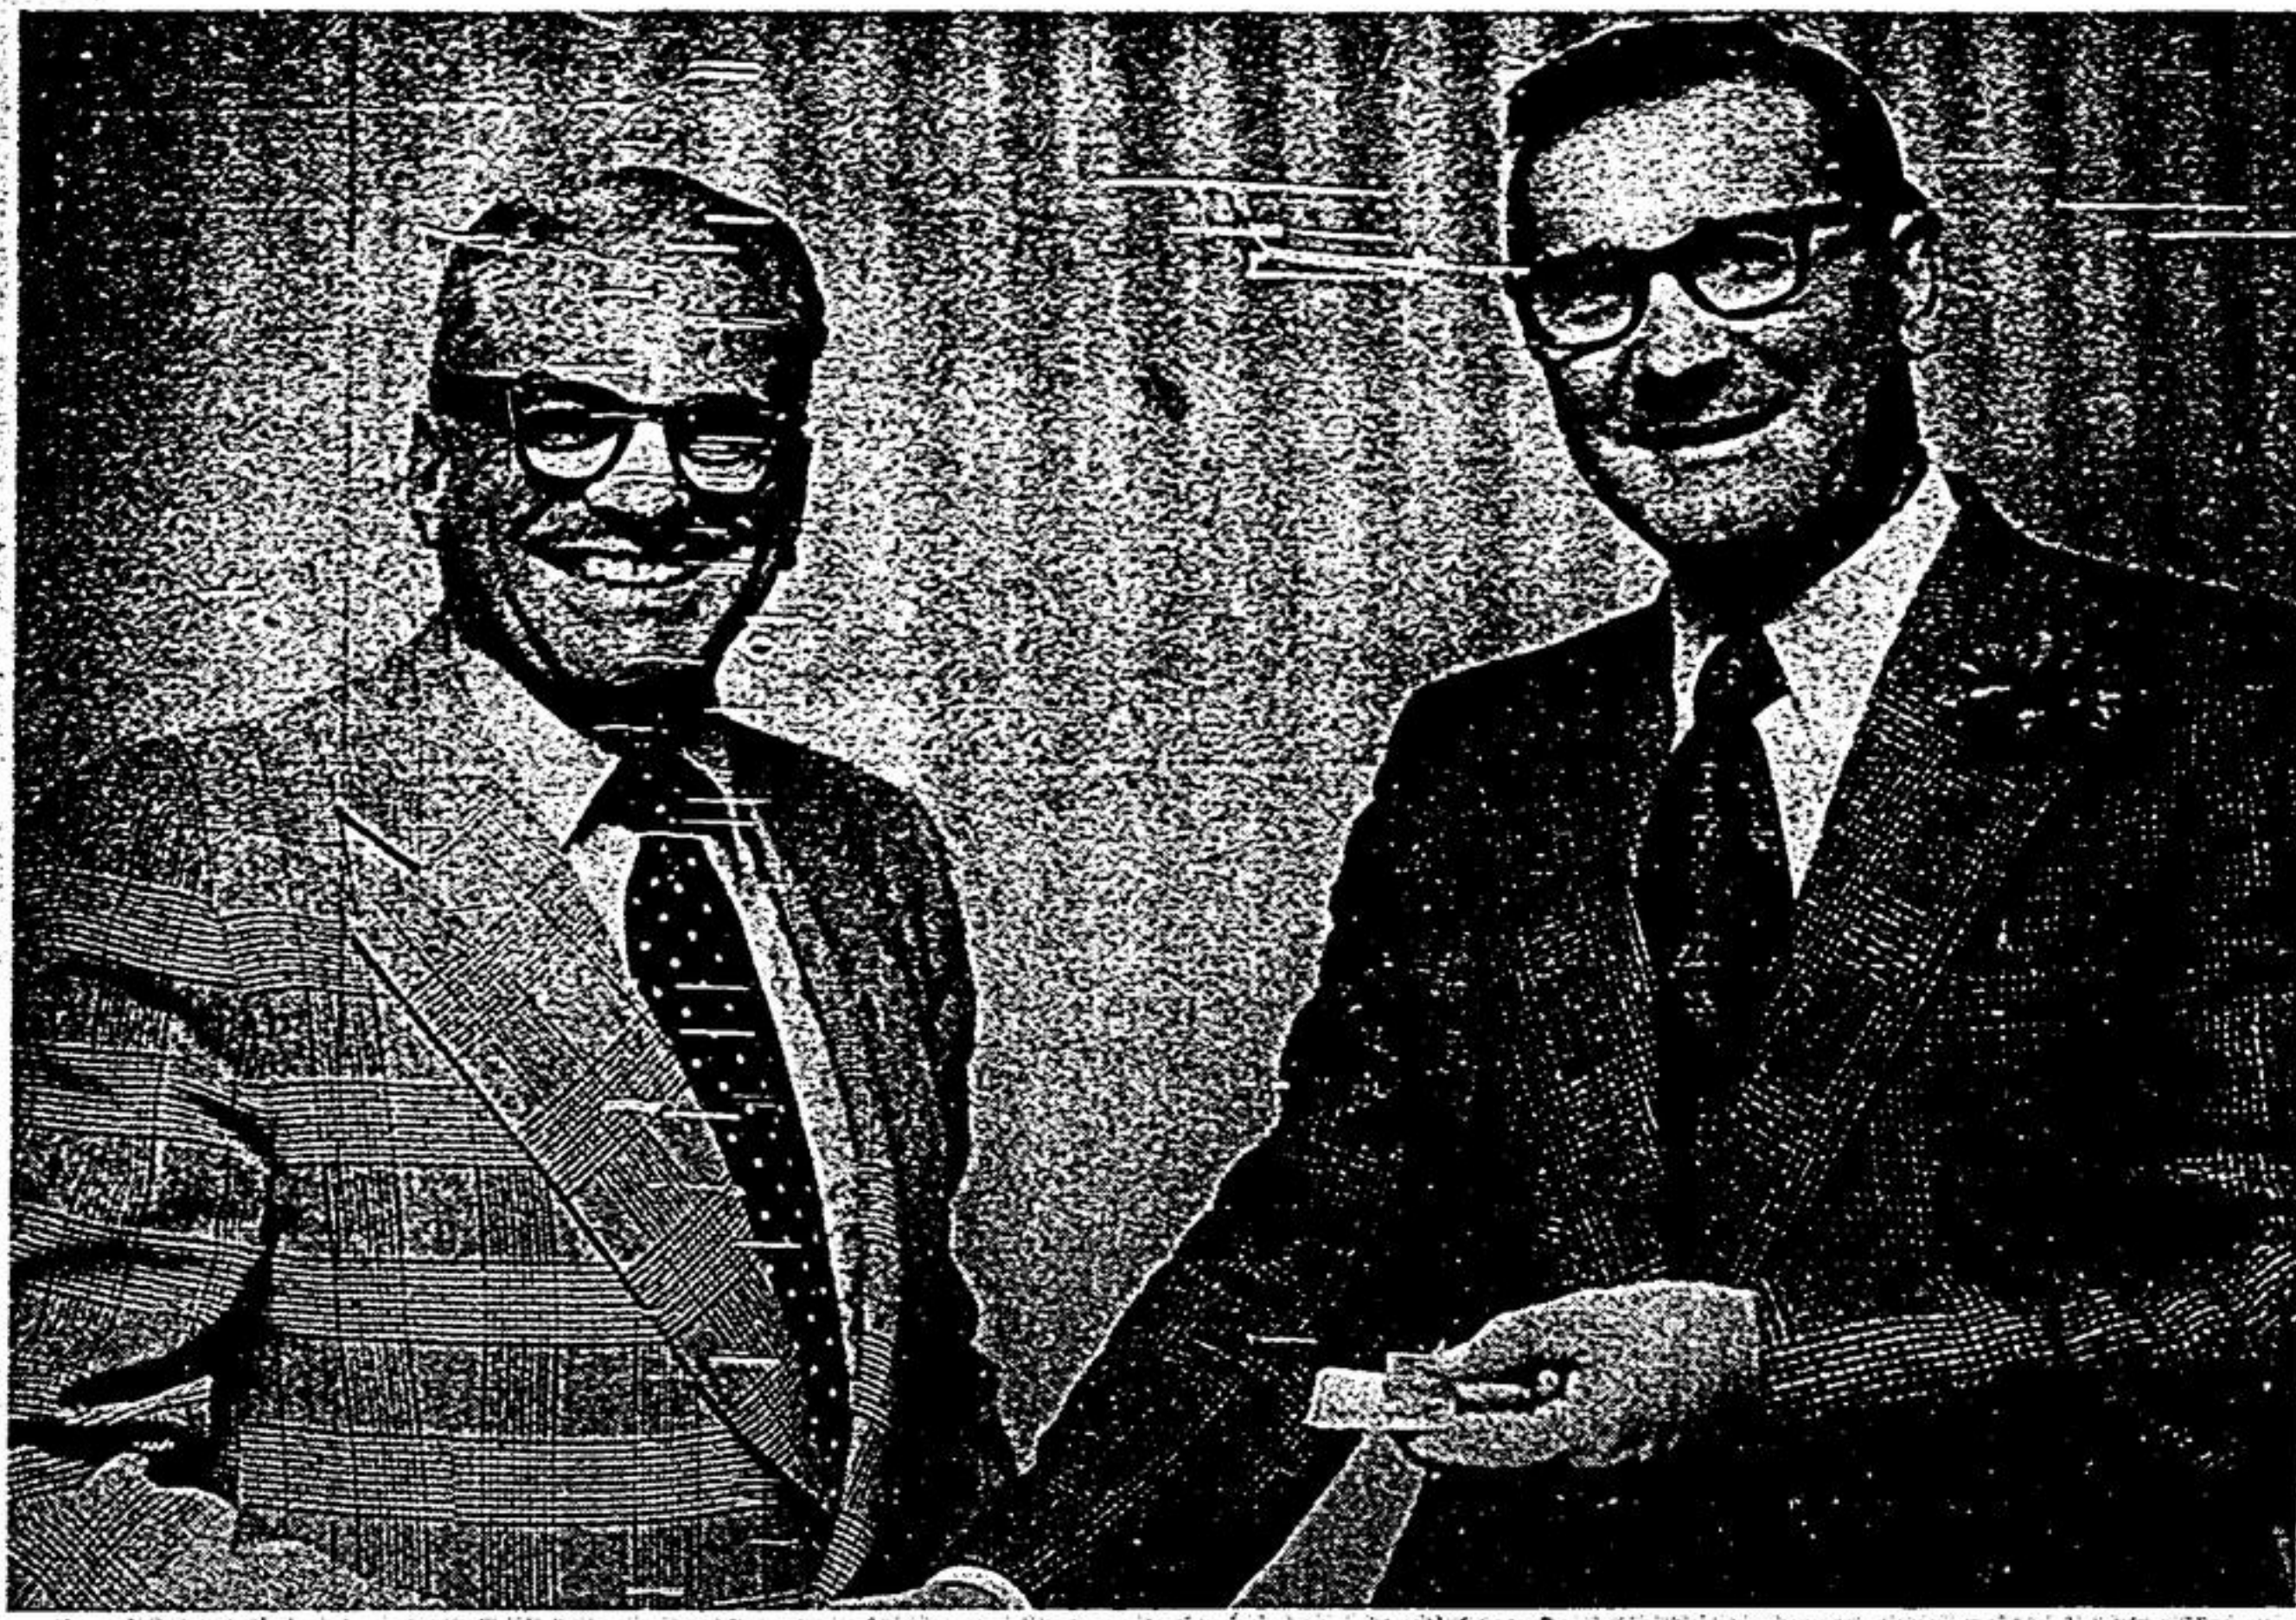

Seats stolen from unattended vehicle.

MARKHAM — Never leave your car parked unattended on a rural road, even after it breaks down.

Paul Chisholm, Cachet Parkway, R. R. 1, Unionville, discovered this last week, when he abandoned his 1965 Corvette on 18th Avenue near the 5th concession.

When he returned with a tow truck, he found the vehicle moved. He also found much of the interior removed. Missing were the two front seats, a cassette tape, deck, thirty tapes and the spare tire.

The loss is estimated at $550.
