Honored by community

GORMLEY — Over 100 friends gathered at Parkside Youth Centre, Nov. 26, to say farewell to Mrs. Evelyn Milsted and daughter, Charleen, residents of Gormley for many years. Mr. Harold Doner, was Master of Ceremonies. Mrs. Jack Gamble delivered a reading and a farewell poem she composed. Miss Arlene Boettger and Bruce Bacon played a musical selection and Miss Edith Raymer read "This is my Life" with direct reference to Mrs. Milsted and her time spent in the community. Mrs. Milsted was presented with two beautiful table lamps, a sunburst clock and a gift of money. Charleen received a pretty lava lamp. In reply, Mrs. Milsted says: "I would like to thank everyone for their donations for these gifts and for attending our farewell party. It was a pleasure to serve the Gormley community from Sept. 1940 to June 1942 as a school teacher at S. S. No. 7 Markham. Charlie and I returned in Aug. 1, 1953 and operated the country store and from April 1, 1954, as Postmaster. We appreciated the loyalty and affection of this community through the happy years, as well as the sad year of 1965. We have appreciated your friendship and may God bless each one of you for your many kindnesses." A delicious lunch concluded a delightful evening.

Students stage variety show

This Thursday and Friday, Dec. 6 and 7, the students of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School will present their annual Variety Show with all proceeds going to the new Whitchurch-Stouffville Library. A highlight, both evenings, will be the portrayal of the story "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens. Two of the actors are Maurice Halstead as "The Ghost of Christmas" and Jim Brodie as Ebenezer Scrooge. — Jim Thomas

Meet a proud Canadian.
Royal Reserve has won out again. This time in a taste test with Canada's largest selling rye.
Groups of typical rye drinkers sipped both brands in identical, unmarked glasses. The verdict? Royal Reserve was overwhelmingly preferred. Shouldn't you try the character and quality that make it a winner?
