STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on Shaw College graduates

STOUFFVILLE — Congratulations are due Sally Schell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schell, Sunset Blvd. and Nori Grimshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Grimshaw, Main St., both of whom have just graduated from Shaw Business College.

The graduation ceremony was conducted at Eaton Auditorium. Both girls completed the executive secretarial course. It is interesting to note that Miss Schell's mother also attended the Shaw College.

Funeral Service — The funeral service was conducted for the late Mary Maud Robinson on Wednesday from the Dixon Funeral Home with interment in Stouffville Cemetery.

Deceased — Passed away on Dec. 5 in her 78th year. She was widow of the late Jack Robinson and is survived by Lyle, Margaret (Mrs. G. Moore), Bernice (Mrs. V. Lawton), all of Markham.

Still Lettuce — Wilbert Gower, 8th Line, Bloomington, reported to The Tribune this week that he was still using lettuce from his garden. He states that the produce is from a hardy western Canada leaf variety which has continued useable despite early frosts.

Ashburn Concert — The Ashburn Christmas Concert will take place this coming Saturday Dec. 15 at the Church. Time for the show is 7 p.m.

New Premises — A number of local business and manufacturing plants both in Stouffville and Markham, have been availing themselves of the new dinner-party facilities at the Sleepy Hollow Golf & Country Club for Christmas staff get-togethers.

Special Fund — A special fund to assist the children's section of the proposed new Whitechurch-Stouffville Public Library has been established by Beta Sigma Phi, Eta Lambda chapter. The first money for the fund is $450 raised from a fashion show held in November.

Goodwood School — Goodwood students have a knack for putting on a good show and they did themselves proud recently in an assembly for their fellow students and parents.

Miss Page's afternoon kindergarten class got the program rolling with a song and flag drill followed by the Grade 2-3 students who demonstrated well the problems of husbands and wives in a song called "Momma's and Poppa's".

The audience was taken in song "A Trip in a Tram", from "Amsterdam to Rotterdam in Holland". Mrs. Fockler's Grade 3 & 4 students presented a well-acted skit entitled "Bandit Ben Rides Agin".

The Christmas assembly is coming up Thursday Dec. 20 at 1 p.m.

Letterbox — An exterior letter box has been installed at The Tribune as a convenience to customers who wish to leave classified ads, editorial items or other information at the Office after-hours.

Children's Theatre — The ever-popular Mary Poppins will be shown at the Children's Theatre, Saturday, in Latham Hall, at 2 p.m.

Ratepayers' social — A wine and cheese party will feature the year's final meeting of the Whitechurch-Stouffville Ratepayers' Association, Monday, Dec. 17, in the Centennial Centre, Ballantrae. Sinclair Stevens, M.P., York-Simcoe, and Bill Hodgson, M.P.P., York-North have been invited to attend. The time is 8 p.m.

Attend Wedding — Mrs. Hazel Cowie Markham, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Cowie, Milliken, and Mrs. Bruce Foote, Stouffville attended the wedding of George Cowie and Carla Strohmeier at St. Dorothee, Laval near Montreal Saturday. The couple are leaving for a trip to Germany this Sunday.

Square Dance — A Christmas Square Dance will be held at the Alton Community Centre, Saturday (Dec. 15) at 8:30 p.m.

Carol Service — The choir of Stouffville United Church is holding a special Carol Service, Sunday, evening, at 7:30 p.m.

Willowdale Wedding

Signing the register after their wedding at the People's Church, Willowdale, are Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ratcliff. The bride is the former Doris Trenkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Trenkle of Agincourt, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ratcliff of Stouffville. The happy young couple plan to make their new home in Timmins.

Madeline Harrison No energy crisis in Locust Hill

LOCUST HILL — Christmas is just around the corner. The trees are up, the lights are twinkling. Guess there isn't the energy crisis in this neck of the woods that everyone else is crying about. I love to take a drive this time of year to see the Christmas displays. They are usually very attractive. Somehow they brighten up an otherwise dull and dreary winter. Sure wish they could be kept up until the dark days of winter are over.

The big event of the year, as far as Locust Hill is concerned, is the Christmas Concert. And just to get things off to a good start, the evening begins with a Pot-Luck Supper.

Have you been to a Pot-Luck Supper lately? Well now's your chance to go. Everyone is invited. The only cover charge is your own special dish to be brought along to the festivities. The feast will be held on 16, 1973 starting at 6:30 p.m. in the Sunday School room of Locust Hill United Church. If you don't know how to get there, give me a call at 294-2894.

But that's just the start of the evening. After the dinner the children have their chance to shine. All of the young members of the Sunday School get a chance to stand up and show beaming Moms and Pops what they were supposed to be learning at Sunday School during the year. Why is it that children have a special knack of embarrassing poor Mom and Dad in front of the whole community?

Remember the little boy who bowed so low one year that he fell flat on his face? He was so embarrassed, that rather than go back up on his feet, he just crawled on his hands and knees under the rows of chairs back to his place.

Remember another little boy who stood up to sing "Jingle Bells" and couldn't remember where to stop so just kept singing until his mother rescued him from his dilemma?

Rose Cook Deliver boxes to shut-ins

GREEN RIVER — Pleased to learn that Mrs. Wm. Scown is home from the hospital following her recent accident.

The Sebler family were happy to have their grandmother visiting for a week. She returned to Germany last Sunday.

John Brass is visiting with C. Jackson and also renewing old friendships.

Sunday, Dec. 16 at 2 p.m. the carollers will deliver boxes to shut-ins and older folks. A cordial invitation is extended to anyone wishing to join us. Please be at the church by the time stated.

Friday, Dec. 21 at 8 p.m. at the church the annual Sunday school concert will be held. A special invitation is extended to all to come and join with us in this old fashioned Christmas concert. Everyone welcome.

Mrs. D. Scown of Bethany visited with Mrs. William Scown this past week.

Lovely Wedding

Irene Puckrin wed in Oshawa

Lynda Irene Puckrin, bride of Clifford Earl Davis, of Oshawa, on Saturday, September 8, at Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, with the Rev. John Lougheed officiating. Miss Debbie Geisberger was the organist. The soloist was Mr. Rick Arbour, accompanied by Mike Jack.

Keep them under wraps for winter

Our cold Ontario winters are hard on many ornamental trees and shrubs, especially if they are not properly protected by suitable wrappings. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Puckrin, R.R. 1, Pickering. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis, of Sarasota, Florida.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long gown of polyester satin and the empire bodice was overlaid with lace, with a sweetheart neckline and full length lace sleeves. The A-line skirt had a lace trim and lace chapel train. Her two-tier illusion veil which was attached to her headpiece was appliqued with lace. Her sister, Mrs. Nancy Rogers, of Sudbury, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Linda Brown, Lynda Davis, Oshawa, Dianne Puckrin, Audley, Mrs. Donna Tanner, Ajax, and Mrs. Jean Vachon, Hamilton.

The best man was Lionel Vachon, Hamilton. The ushers were Glen Brown, Preston Davis, Oshawa, Keith Puckrin, Roy Puckrin, Seagrave, and Keith Rogers, Sudbury.

The reception was held at Heydenshore Pavilion, Whitby. The couple is honeymooning in Florida and Nassau. On their return, they will reside in Oshawa.
