STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Honored guests

At Swiss series' opener

STOUFFVILLE — Arthur Latham of Stouffville was honored, Friday evening, to host many important people, all part of the Swiss delegation, attending the Stouffville - Wallisellen hockey game in the local Arena.

Seated in the gallery and introduced by Master of Ceremonies Bob Bangay were: Mr. H. Stettler, Vice Consul-General of the Swiss Embassy; Mr. S. Pilonel, Vice Consul-General of the Swiss Embassy; fifty members of the Swiss Club, under the leadership of Mr. Ernie Boxler; also Sinclair Stevens, M.P., York-Simcoe; Wm. Hodgson, M.P.P., York-North; Anthony Roman, Mayor, Town of Markham; Gordon Ratcliff, Mayor, Town of Whitchurch - Stouffville; Garfield Wright, Council Chairman, Region of York; Councillors June Button, Cathy Joyce, Merlyn Baker, Eldred King, Art Starr and Jim Wong, Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville; Mr.

Grimshaw, Executive Member, O.M.H.A. Introductions also included the players and managements of both teams. Among the gifts presented to the hosts, was a beautiful Alpine horn for local tournament convener, Ed Grimshaw, and a huge silken emblem, indicating friendship and co-operation between the two towns and two countries.

Late Watson Scott

The death is reported of Mr. Watson Scott, a native of Bethesda, and an employee with the T. Eaton Company for 25 years. Mr. Scott was 69. Surviving is his wife, the former Florence Lee and a brother, Albert of Aurora! The funeral service was held Dec. 29 in Toronto. Pall bearers were nephews, John, Charles and Fred Clubine; Alex Logan, Roy Scott and Harold Lapp.

Visits parents

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Fockler were recent visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Almer Fockler, Main Street West.

Show Cancelled

Due to a prior commitment, the Children's Theatre has been cancelled at Latham Hall, Saturday afternoon. Parents are asked to make note of this change.

Newlyweds are new residents in Stouffville

Mr. and Mrs. David Craig, following their marriage in Grace United Church, Brampton, Ont. Mr. Craig is an employee with the firm of Westeel-Rosco Limited. Mrs. Craig, the former Faye Bovaird of Brampton is on the staff of the Medical Laboratory in Stouffville. They reside at 85 Winlane Drive, Stouffville.

Along wait but worth it

STOUFFVILLE — For a time, this day, it was feared the "welcome mat" to Hwy. 10 from Stouffville, would have to be rolled up and the reception delayed another day.

And this, in effect, was what occurred. For the Town's hockey guests from Wallisellen, Switzerland, didn't arrive until 12:50 a.m., Friday, ushered in by two Stouffville firetrucks, and a cavalcade of cars.

Ed Grimshaw of the O.M.H.A. executive, described the delay this way. The Swiss plane was scheduled to land at New York, prior to the last leg of the flight to Toronto. However, weather conditions forced a side-trip to Boston, and then on to Malton.

Mr. Grimshaw, accompanied by Will Morley and Harvey Feasby, left Stouffville for Malton at 8 p.m. The Swiss plane touched down at 11:30.

"We were treated very well at the airport," Mr. Grimshaw said. A truck was dispatched to the plane so the equipment and luggage could be quickly loaded. Nelda Morley served as the Stouffville contact, relaying messages from her husband to Latham Hall. "She (Nelda) did a heck of a good job," said Ed. "her phone was ringing off the wall."

Altogether, with the time change, the Swiss boys and their parents, spent 25 hours in the air.

Meanwhile, back at the Ball, the hours of waiting were shortened by the Dixieland Stompers, who played almost continuously, from ten o'clock through to 1 a.m.

"It was okay," said Morley, pouring out a glass of punch. "we needed the practice."
