A Price Comparison...

Food prices in Canada have increased recently, but still seem very reasonable when compared to other countries. For instance, representatives from the Ontario Food Council observed the following prices in Cologne, Germany while attending a food show.

Bananas	lb. 26c
Milk	qt. 47c
Chicken Breasts	lb. $1.48
Turkey	lb. $1.33
Grade A Large Eggs	doz. $1.48
Tomato Ketchup	(20 oz.) $1.18
Corn Niblets	(12 oz.) 54c
Corn Flakes	(12 oz.) 94c

Food prices in just about every country in the world have taken an upward surge. However, the percentage of net income spent on food items is still lower in Canada. And it's possible to stretch our deflated dollar by shopping wiser, shopping harder.

Mrs. Green is available to talk "shopping" to groups. Call 259-6633 or write 300 The East Mall (1st.), Toronto M9B 6B8.
