STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Courts approved
On recommendation from the Stouffville Community Centre Board, the Town has approved the construction of two tennis courts in the west-end park, Rupert Avenue and Westlawn Crescent. The courts are a project of the Stouffville Lions Club.

Holiday trip
Mr. and Mrs. Reg Gibbons, Lorretta Crescent South, have returned from a two-week holiday on the picturesque Caribbean island of St. Lucia.

U.C.W. president
Mrs. Jim Richards has been re-elected president of the Stouffville U.C.W., for '74. The executive also includes - Mrs. Stuart Watson, vice-president; Mrs. Spencer Morrison, recording secretary; Mrs. Ron Mercer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Jennings, treasurer; and Mrs. Ted Cadieux, assistant-treasurer. A highlight of the annual meeting was the presentation of a Life Membership to Mrs. James McCreight.

Seek Manse
The congregation of St. James Presbyterian Church is now a separated charge from St. Andrew's, Markham. In May, a pastor for St. James will take up residence in Stouffville. To accommodate their minister, a committee has been set up to arrange the purchase of a Manse, preferably in town. Anyone with a home to sell or knowing of a home for sale, is asked to contact Mrs. John Marshall, O'Brien Avenue, (640-2404), as soon as possible.

Chimney fire
The Stouffville brigade was called out to a chimney fire, Sunday, at the home of Stewart Vague, south of Ringwood. No damage resulted.

N.D.P. executive
Elections to the 1974 Riding executive were held Jan. 24, following a general membership meeting of the York-North N.D.P. Association in Newmarket. Positions have been filled by Bob Lewis, Jack Hadfield, Kathleen Glazin, Mary Ann Robinson, Wally Gustar, Jim Doble, Gerhard Klaassen and Flora Hunter. The guest speaker for the occasion was Mario Bartoletti, executive director of the Family Life Centre in Markham.

Still missing
'Dali', a part-German Shepherd, part-Labrador dog, owned by Michael and Janet Robertson, conc. 7, Pickering, is still missing. The pet is black with white markings. Although many sightings have been reported, none has led to his recovery. The Robertson's phone number is 294-2536.

Guides honored
Five Stouffville Girl Guides were honored, Jan. 30, at a ceremony in Latcham Hall. Canada Cord presentations were made to Joanne Morgason, Karen Conolly and Marianne Mann. All-Round Cords were received by Patti Haining and Cathy Morgason.

Donates uniforms
The hockey uniforms, purchased for the Bantam team for their games in Switzerland in '73, and used by the Midget club here in '74, have been donated to the boys by Arthur Latcham, just another of his many generous 'gifts'.

Top typists

STOUFFVILLE — Shelley Elson and Gayle Wagg, members of the senior girl's typing team from Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, topped all class entries in York County competition at King City, Jan. 25. In individual competition, Gayle Wagg placed second. In the junior section, Colleen Clarke scored third. She was also a member of Stouffville's junior team, along with Joanne Smith.

Home from hospital
The many friends of Mr. Harry Hathaway, R. R. 2, Clarmont, will be pleased to know he is now home from York County Hospital at Newmarket. Mr. Hathaway was a patient there for two weeks, following a heart attack.

Welcomed to town
Pat Beaton, the Town's hostess for Welcome Wagon, has been extremely busy in recent weeks. Newcomers visited include: Mr. and Mrs. Ken MacLeod and family, formerly of Scarborough and now at 412 Watson Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Gerry O'Hearn and family, formerly of Scarborough and now of 176 Hawthorne Ave.; Mr. and Mrs. G. Lowry from Markham to 339 Boyer Street; Mr. K. Johansen from Gormley to 21 Baker Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. G. Middleton of Winnipeg to 59 Manitoba Street; Mr. and Mrs. M. Gornik and family of Agincourt to 77 Manitoba Street; Mr. and Mrs. R. Loveday from Port Credit to 191 Manitoba Street; Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson from Don Mills to 217 Manitoba Street; Mr. and Mrs. C. McDonald from Scarborough to 596 Maystone Court; Mr. and Mrs. A. Elliott from Mississauga to 203 Manitoba Street; Mr. and Mrs. Dirk Schmatkel from Toronto to 478 Rupert Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. J. Agnew of Brampton to 96 Tindale Road; Mr. and Mrs. Barry Knox of Markham to 328 South Street; and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Mitchell from Gormley to 424 Loretta Crescent.

Hall break-in York Regional Police report a break-in at the Cedar Beach Dance Hall, Jan. 17. Entry to the premises was gained by breaking a window in the snack bar. The working mechanism of the change machine was removed and found a short distance away. An attempt was also made to force open the cigarette machine.

Library appointment
Robert 'Bud' Sanderson, Orchard Park Blvd., Stouffville, is the new appointment on the Town Library Board for '74, filling the post made vacant through the resignation of Jerry Waite. Mr. Waite served the Board for six years, including three years as Chairman. His enthusiasm and co-operation was praised by Mayor Gordon Ratcliff, following receipt of the resignation. In addition to Mr. Sanderson, other members are: Mayor Ratcliff, Jim Sanders, Lorna Ness, Carol McDermott, Frank Mellon, Doug Harris, Ann Griffiths and Marion Wells.

Week-long Crusade
A week-long Crusade, led by Rev. Alf Rees and Art Perri, will commence at the Stouffville Missionary Church, Feb. 10 and extend through Feb. 17. Rev. Rees is a former pastor at Dickson's Hill Missionary Church and presently an associate evangelist with Crusade Evangelism International.

50th anniversary
On the occasion of their 50th anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Almer Fockler will be 'at home' to their many friends, Friday evening, Feb. 1 from 7 to 9 p.m., at 3 Chancery Lane, Guildwood Village, Scarborough.

'Open House'
An 'open house' will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Schell, 25 Orchard Park Blvd., Stouffville, Sunday, Feb. 10, from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m., on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Amaryllis blooms-nine inches across

Try and top this! An Amaryllis, 45 inches in height, with three beautiful blooms, each nine inches in width. That's the size of the plant Mrs. Helen DeWitt has growing in the living room of her home on Church Street South, in Stouffville. The beauty of the flower is at its best this week. Jim Thomas.

'Whipper' Watson Telethon

Pledges will build therapeutic pool

STOUFFVILLE — The Whipper Watson Appeal has been

Dies while on vacation

MARKHAM — The Markham community was saddened, Jan. 15, when news was received on the passing of Mr. Roy Dart, well-known local farmer. Mr. Dart died suddenly while on vacation in the Barbados. He was 56.

During his residence on 17th Avenue, R.R. 2, Markham, for the past 18 years, Mr. Dart specialized in the raising and marketing of hogs.

Roy Dart was born in East York, son of the late John and Annie Dart. In 1941, he married Betty Lee and later commenced farming near Birchmount Road and Eglinton Ave., Scarborough. They purchased their present property in 1956.

Surviving, besides his wife, are five children, Donna, (Mrs. Walter Fraas), Stouffville; John of Markham; David, Unionville; Carey and Betty at home. There are three grandchildren.

Service was held from the Dixon Funeral Home, Markham, with interment, Resthaven Memorial Gardens, Scarborough.

organized to raise $250,000. to build a therapeutic pool to provide a necessary facility to serve the area north of Toronto. The major fund raising event will be a 30-hour telethon on CKVR, Channel 3, Barrie beginning at 12 noon Saturday Feb. 16, and continuing until six p.m. Sunday Feb. 17.

Many of the entertainment world's biggest stars will participate in this television appeal including such well known Canadian stars as —Wayne and Shuster, Lighthouse, Tommy Hunter, Dinah Christie, and Pierre Berton.

The pool will be available to handicapped children and adults throughout this area and will be located at the York County Hospital, Newmarket.

During the 30 hours, drop centres will be manned by volunteers and celebrities so that donors may visit one of these spots in or near their own community and make their pledge or donation in person. The local drop centre will be located at the Birkett-Hassard Insurance office at 159 Main St. West.

During the telethon, a celebrity will be flown into Stouffville by helicopter and will spend a short-time at the drop centre.

The Stouffville-Lions Club has for many years supported the Crippled Children Easter Seal Campaign and have pledged their assistance in this appeal. Also, the members of the Student Council at the Stouffville District Secondary School are planning various fund raising activities.

During the next week the local businesses will be canvassed for pledges however, it is the hope of the fund raising committee that every individual, both young and old, will respond, and play a part in helping someone less fortunate than themselves.

Volunteers will be at the Birkett-Hassard Insurance office for the full 30 hours. Please pay them a visit. Your donation, no matter how small, will give you a share in this very worthwhile project.

'Wizard of Oz'

The classic all-color film, 'The Wizard of Oz' will be featured at the Children's Theatre, Sat., Feb. 2 in Latcham Hall. The show begins sharp at 2 p.m., with doors open at 1:30. Admission is adults, $1; children, .50c; senior citizens free.
