Married fifty years

STOUFFVILLE
George Johnson and Erma Vague attended Sunday School together at Ringwood Christian Church.

They knew each other then, but hardly well enough to foresee the close friendship that was to follow. George and Erma were married, March 26, 1924. On Tuesday, March 26, 1974, they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

George was born near Newmarket, the son of John and Barbara Johnson. Erma is a native of Baker Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vague. Both were pupils at Ringwood Public School, but not at the same time. Erma also attended at Dickson's Hill.

The two were married at the Methodist parsonage on Church Street in Stouffville. Following the ceremony, they travelled by horse and buggy to the Stouffville station for a honeymoon trip to Toronto on the Hog Special.

For a time, they resided north of Ringwood, later moving into the hamlet in 1957. For the past 16 years, they've lived on Harold Avenue in Stouffville. Both are members at Ringwood Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have one son, Bill, also of Stouffville, and two grandchildren, Steven and Christopher. A niece, now Mrs. Jean McAnsh of Toronto, grew up as their own.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Harold Avenue, Stouffville, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, March 26, with an open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Claremont, R.R. 2. A family gathering to mark the occasion, was held Sunday evening.

Residents requests by guest pianist

The Thursday program on March 21, more directly involved the Residents. They were requested to bring titles to their favourite musical selections to be played by guest pianist Jim McDowell.

Eric Strachan led the Residents in worship at the Sunday evening service on March 24. We regret to report the death of a long-time Resident of Parkview, Mrs. Katherine Huestis, March 22. Mrs. Huestis was the second person admitted to Parkview on June 14, 1965.

Recent visitors to Parkview include: Clarence Summerfeldt for Miss Nellie Bond; Ruth Grove and Mrs. F. Ratcliff for Miss Lily Bailey; Art and Marg McMaster of Agincourt for Mr. Bert Hawtin; Mrs. Reddick of Markham for Mrs. B. Crosby; Mrs. A. Dixon for Miss Elizabeth Dixon; E. ## Inner condition -- not good works

BY HOWARD MINAKER
"Mommy are none of these people Christian?" asked a small girl as she searched her mother's face in astonishment. She was watching for a dark mark on each forehead on Ash Wednesday, to compare with those of her own and her mother's. The child thought this identified a Christian.

During this Lenten season, I expect a number of people will, for the period, give up certain pleasures, or vices, to please God. Others will attend church more often in preparation for Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

However, being a Christian is an inner condition that cannot be arranged by our own good works. The word "Christian" was coined as a derogatory term to identify the followers of Jesus Christ. It meant "Christ, in" as they claimed He dwelt in their hearts.

Its true meaning has never changed. It means precisely the same as this moment.
Mrs. Luella DeRoster is much improved following a period of ill health.
