Girls return from 9-day trip to Rome

GREENWOOD - Mary Lou Morden, Kathy Byberg, Sylvia Brown and Shirley Hooker, have returned from a holiday trip to Rome. They were away nine days, travelling by bus and plane.

Several Greenwood boys participated in hockey tournaments during the holiday week. Steven Byberg and Greg Baun of Whitby Bantams were at London; Keith Wilson of Brooklin Peewees was in both Goderich and London. He scored two goals. John Byberg of the Whitby Novice team played in a tournament at Markham.

Mrs. Les Wilson visited with Mrs. Enid Dawson of London, recently. Mrs. Dawson was a resident here, several years ago.

Mrs. George Griffin is home following a month spent in Florida. She travelled by bus with a group of senior citizens.

George Hill and his fiancée, Carman DeGiorgia of Whitby, were honored at a miscellaneous shower in the Christian Education Centre, of Greenwood United Church, Friday. They received many lovely and useful gifts. George and Carman will be married, Saturday, at 4 p.m.

STOUFFVILLE - Before embarking on any project that could pose an inconvenience to other people, a formal application is filed with Council, Mayor Gordon Ratcliff said this week.

The placing of two mobile homes in the Stouffville Plaza was done without Town permission, he explained. Members subsequently authorized their immediate removal, and ordered the buildings locked up until this was done.
