STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

New location
Hathaway Bros. Paint and Wallpaper Store is now at a new location on Main Street West. The site was formerly occupied by Cadet Cleaners.

Music Mania '74
With Music Mania only three weeks away (April 25-26-27), rehearsals are in full swing. Skit director Mary Harris, husband Doug and daughter Elizabeth, took advantage of the winter 'break' to enjoy an island vacation. Daphne Goldman and family travelled to New York City while program director Norma Card was 'bedded down' for a time with the flu.

Family holiday
Mr. and Mrs. Eric Frampton and daughter, Kim, Rupert Avenue, have returned from holiday in Puerto Rico and St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

Show cancelled
The high school Drama Nights, originally scheduled for Thursday, (to-night) and Friday, have been cancelled. A staff spokesman said that due to the recent teacher strike, there was insufficient time to properly prepare the event.

Roller Derby
Roller Derby is coming to the Markham Centennial Arena, Sunday, April 7. The 'knock down drag 'em out' sport that has become so popular in larger centres will match the Canadian All Stars against the Baltimore Washington 'Cats'. The action starts at 8 p.m.

Tribune 1909
While making renovations at their home, 244 Main Street West, Mr. and Mrs. John Woodhead came across sections of Old Tribunes, dated 1909. Other complete papers in the '40's were also found. They were still readable, Mrs. Woodhead said.

Tickets available
Tickets for Music Mania '74 are now available at Card's Hardware, Main Street. Show dates are April 25, 26 and 27 at the High School.

Feature film
'Call of the Wild', a film of adventure and excitement for the whole family, starring Charlton Heston, begins Friday, at the Towne Cinema, Main Street, Markham.

Dated 1846
A barn on the farm of the late Frank Atkinson at Ringwood has been torn down to be re-located at the campsite on the property of Levi Grove, conc. 7. A date of 1846 was found carved in one of the beams, possible the time of its original construction.

Ecumenical service
An ecumenical service, organized by the Markham Ministerial Association, will be held, March 7 (Palm Sunday) at 3 p.m., in St. Patrick's Church, Markham. The worship is open to all denominations.

From Kitchener
Rev. George Peck of Kitchener, was in town, Saturday, to attend the funeral of his aunt, the late Mrs. Estella Ratcliff.

Correction
In a Tribune story of March 7, 1974, it was reported that one Harold Horton of R. R. 4, Stouffville, had been charged in connection with a forced entry at the premises of Hans Heyd Service Station and Doherty Motors, Vancor. The newspaper has since learned from police that Mr. Horton was not involved in this incident. The Tribune regrets any embarrassment the story may have caused this person.

Fresh off the nest

STOUFFVILLE—Customers at Houston's Drug Store, Main Street, may have noticed a 'bare' section in an area usually reserved for special displays.

The reason? The spot had been set aside for Easter, including such edible items as chocolate eggs, rabbits, chickens and so on. However, when the order failed to arrive on schedule, Sybil Houston, became concerned. She began phoning around in an attempt to track down the 'goodies'.

Beautiful service
A beautiful service was conducted in the Stouffville Missionary Church, Sunday evening when the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Ohlman, presented the cantata, 'So Send I You'. Sunday marked the start of 'Mission Week' with an objective for World Missions of $10,000.

$1,300 damage
There were no injuries but damage was estimated at $1,300 in a 2-car collision at Ninth and Main, March 24. Drivers were Angela McGregor of Stouffville and David Clouston of Kirkfield.

From Gooderham
Mr. and Mrs. Ken Webster of Gooderham, visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Pilkey of Fairview Avenue. Mrs. Webster is Mr. Pilkey's sister.

Paper Drive
The Boy Scout paper drive is this Saturday, April 6, beginning at 9 a.m. Persons wishing to make their own deliveries may deposit bundles in a railway car at the Stouffville station, Friday night.

Then finally, success. She learned the truck, enroute to Barrie, had broken down on Hwy. 400, and had remained there for two nights, awaiting repairs.

Word of the delay was received by the Laura Secord firm. The company ordered the shipment 'scrapped'. Another order was sent out, Monday. Mrs. Houston said the loss would exceed $1,000 on the Stouffville shipment alone.

The new eggs, however, are 'fresh off the nest'.

Visits daughter
Mrs. Herb Yakely, Harold Avenue, visited recently with her daughter, Arlene in Ottawa. Arlene is taking an advanced meteorological course there.

To Daytona Beach
Shirley Morgason of Ringwood, with three girlfriends, travelled by bus recently to Daytona Beach, for a week's vacation.

Dr. Johnson
Dr. E. H. Johnson, remembered for his active humanitarian work during the Biafra conflict, will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Markham, Sunday.

Question period
A question period will follow. Dr. Johnson is associated with the Board of World Missions. He is the author of a book entitled 'For a Time Like This'.

Styles to swing into Spring
The Kinette Club of Stouffville, held its annual spring fashion show, April 1 and 2 at Latcham Hall. Eight local models participated, including Carol Rae, Main Street West.

Estella Ratcliff
Lifelong area resident

STOUFFVILLE—Service was held from O'Neill's Funeral Home, Stouffville, on Saturday, for Estella Ratcliff, following her passing, March 28, at Parkview.
