'Motherpower' neglected and forgotten

By Howard Minaker
In our yearly calendar, we have just observed a very important day. This is a day that emphasizes the recognition of a powerful force in our society. I refer to Mothers' Day. This day was originally instituted in 1908 to honor good mothers for the sacrifice and loving influence on their children. I do not believe there is a more mighty natural power for good than the influence of a good mother.

Unfortunately, today our community and country suffers from a severe shortage of this great power. The crown of motherhood, its sacrifices and glories is being despised by many. I must declare my sincere thankfulness for a good and Christian mother. My first prayer I uttered with her help. She left a career as a successful concert pianist to follow Christ. I never saw my mother smoke, or drink or gamble. I never heard her curse. I never knew her to consider deserting her family when the going was hard. To the hundreds of mothers of such devotion, I pay special tribute. Their children rise to call them "blessed" and their works to follow them.

I fear a neglected and forgotten power of our nation is our "Motherpower".

Ladies put together annual report

Terry Foulds and Alice Hamm (right) do their part to assemble the Annual Report for the Markham and District Family Life Centre. The annual meeting was Monday night. A number of ladies worked at the home of Anita Snow, O'Brien Ave., Friday to gather and staple the report to together. Also helping out were - Jean Hammond, Mary Smith, Kay Marshall, Louise Roney, Lorna Wagg, Ruth Wagg, Gloria Middleton, Alleen Barrett and Mrs. Snow.

Committee needs stenographers

STOUFFVILLE - The Historical Committee, formed this Spring to research the town's history for the upcoming centennial, is well underway with plans and objectives. Things are moving fast and furious, with tremendous co-operation being offered by those who have been asked to provide historical background data and reference material. The Committee needs help this time it's stenographic. If there are two or three experienced typists in Stouffville who have a typewriter and a little spare time, the Committee would like to hear from them. If you can and would like to assist, please call Mrs. Jackie Larendowicz at 640-5432.

Recycling depot urged for town

Dear Jim,
Last Saturday the new waste recycling depot at Unionville was officially opened. From all reports, Markham and Thornhill will have similar depots if volunteers are found to operate them. In Uxbridge, the Committee on Pollution was one of the first groups in the province to undertake a recycling operation. Perhaps this letter will provide stimulus to activate a local anti-pollution group. I'd be interested in hearing from like-minded residents.

Stouffville, on the other hand, has lagged behind the anti-pollution efforts of the neighbouring communities.
