Pickering wants freeze lifted

PICKERING — Pickering wants the provincial government to lift the land freeze in the town to allow building on lots severed before 1968.

Building lots in the northern part of Pickering were frozen under a provincial government order when North Pickering community and the new international airport were announced.

The area under the freeze has been extended twice.

Uxbridge Township has also been waging a battle with Queen's Park on allowing amendments to the freeze order for lots that existed prior to the freeze.

Councillor Jack Anderson said people in rural areas were suffering a real hardship.
