THE MAN FOR THE JOB:

- CAPABLE
- RESPONSIBLE
- DECISIVE ...

...In these times of crises, we need men in Ottawa that will be considerate of our problems, decisive to deal with them, and plan for the future of Canada and Canadians.

In his nominating address, Rev. Canon H. R. Howden gave three reasons why he believes Stephen Roman should be in Ottawa.

- "Stephen Roman has had a full and varied experience of life - has engaged in hard physical work - has had to face reverses and deal with all manner of problems and, therefore, has an understanding of people.
- He is a man who loves Canada - his country by choice - and has a strong belief in democracy.
- He is a man who has built his own life on strong moral and spiritual foundations and is outspoken about the need for this kind of emphasis in our national life today. He is a strong believer in the institution of the home and family. He is fortunate in having a lovely wife, Betty, and a fine family of four sons and three daughters."
