Man stabbed in heart

YORK REGION — A 21 year old Scarboro man is dead after an argument over a flat tire.

Michael Wallace was stabbed in the heart with a 3 1/2 inch pocket knife blade. Police said the dead man had been driving on Lake Drive near Willow Beach when he was flagged down by another man.

An argument over air being let out of the tires of the man's car soon developed into a fight. During the scuffle Mr. Wallace was stabbed in the heart.

Friends of the dead man brought the body to a doctor and identified the car which sped away following the stabbing. A York Regional Police officer saw the car parked at Old Homestead Road and Centre Road and Carl Landry, 28, of Scarboro was arrested and charged with non-capital murder. An autopsy revealed that Mr. Wallace died from stab wounds to the heart.

It was a perfect day for a parade. Saturday the members of the Goodwood Orange Lodge marched through the hamlet, to the enjoyment of all onlookers. The group then gathered together and took part in the large Orangeman's parade in Bowmanville. — Don Bernard.
