All those who attended the unveiling Sunday were amazed at the painting 'Moment with Lucy Maud' which was presented to the Uxbridge-Scott Historical Society. The women in the picture seemed to be alive in the creation by Leaksdale artist Arnold Hodgkins. The Uxbridge Music Hall was full for the program that honored Miss Montgomery who lived in Leadsdale for 15 years.

Squirts win tourney

By Anne Loney

CLAREMONT — Between 95 and 100 from Claremont attended the Annual Ayr Minor Softball Tournament on Saturday and Sunday with 23 teams entered. Local teams taking part were the squirts, bantams and peewees. For the second year the squirts won in their category and came home with the Trophy. They were coached by Dave McDonald. The bantam finals were rained out Sunday but will be played next Saturday commencing at 1 p.m.

Our sympathy to Miss Nora Ham, who has not been in good health for some time and has suffered two recent bereavements. Her brother, Lorne Franklin Ham, died in Oshawa Hospital, Wednesday, July 10, and her sister Myrtle's husband, Walter Baker, of Markham passed away two weeks ago.

Bobby Ryan spent the Church vandalised. Vandals broke a window in the door of the Stouffville Missionary Church. According to police there was no further damage and nothing was stolen.

Bad cheques

A woman who passed two bad cheques in Stouffville has been arrested and charged with false pretences. In March the woman tendered a cheque for $36.50 at Paul Stratty Hairstylists and in April a $25 cheque was cashed at Graham Hudson Florists. These cheques were returned N.S.F.

STOUFFVILLE SCENE
What's going on

60th Anniversary
A re-union marking the 60th anniversary of the York County Junior Farmers organization will be held August 17 at the Markham Fairgrounds. Registration is between 4-5 p.m., with a barbeque and dance in the evening. Tickets are available before July 26 from Lois Empringham, R. R. 1, Unionville, phone 887-5635 or Paul Hulshof, R. R. 3, Stouffville, 640-1299. Tickets are $5 for the barbeque and dance and $2 for the dance alone.

Family gathering
A family gathering was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Bond, 9th Line N. in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Pilkey, Fairview Avenue, on their 34th wedding anniversary. It was also Mr. Pilkey's birthday. Those present included — John Pilkey, Mr. and Mrs. Tolar Boake, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Caterer, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Boake and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boake and family, Don Chase and friend, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Desjardine and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Prentice and Mr. and Mrs. Doc Brown.

Rea Family re-union
Forty members of the Rea family gathered Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Deacon, R. R. 4, Stouffville. Three different things were celebrated by the family. Two birthdays — Nicki Wilson, three years old and Jim Rae Jr. 24, were celebrated and a wedding shower was held for Gayle Pagnello, who is getting married Aug. 9. All present were descendants of Mrs. Marion Rae. An old friend of Mrs. Rae's, Nellie Haaper, was also there.

Family re-union
The families of the late Simeon Hoover and Arthur Barkey met Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barkey, R. R. 1, Goodwood, for a time of fellowship before two of the families leave for the mission fields. Mr. and Mrs. Jim McDowell and son are leaving for Nigeria and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Barkey and family are off to New Guinea. A picnic lunch was served on the lawn and a time of sharing, led by Lawrence, followed. Eric and Jim shared how God had called them to the mission field.

Friendship Club trip
Members of the Stouffville Friendship Club spent lovely days visiting Oshawa recently. The bus trip included a tour of the McLaughlin Estate and a shopping excursion at the Oshawa Centre.

Kin-vest-ment winners
Kin-vest-ment No 16 winners for weeks 11 and 12 include — Maude Irwin; Alex Denholm, Frank Wilbur and Les Clarke. Jack Pollard hit the jack pot winning the $1,000 award. Marge Bowes made the draw.

Top blood donor
While the need for blood is urgent in the summer, seemingly more so than at other times in the year, one Stouffville resident has done more than her share. Audreene Hawkins of Main Street W. has donated a total of 75 pints of blood over the years. Last week she received a certificate from the Canadian Red Cross recognizing that achievement. Mrs. Hawkins said she gives blood four times a year on a regular basis.

Mini-manpower
Stouffville's mini-manpower office is operating and according to Dean Robertson, is successfully finding jobs for students. He said that the office, which operates at Latcham Hall, has placed 16 students in summer jobs. Requests for any kind of work are accepted at the office including gardening odd jobs and babysitting. Perspective employers or students call 640-5548 or go to Latcham Hall 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily.

Bicycle to Minden
Dan Brown and Ken Benson bicycled to Minden recently for a week's holiday.

Blood donors clinic
Stouffville Blood Donor's clinic will be held this coming Monday (July 22) at the Legion Hall. Those who wish to give blood may do so 2:30-4:30 p.m. and 6:30-8:30
