STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Visit Brussels
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reesor of Stouffville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steckley visited the Brussels-Atwood area Thursday and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Reesor and family.

Pine Orchard Long time pastor retires
PINE ORCHARD — It was a day of mixed emotions at Pine Orchard's Union Church Sunday.

Rev. Roy Inglis announced that after six years as pastor there and 50 years in the ministry he is retiring. In the same program the congregation enjoyed duets from two former members of the church. Helen Reid of Newmarket and Margaret Carter of Willowdale are both former members of the choir.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hope are enjoying a trip to Vancouver and then plan a trip to Alaska by ship.

Bob McMurdy Jr. took part in a horse show at St. Catharines last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McClure were recent visitors with his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Petch of Markdale.

Pine Orchard corner is having a face lift with the erection of a spacious garage replacing the service station which was started by Bill Potter in the mid 30's. The present owner and operator is Steve Pilakes, a licensed mechanic.

Extended trip
Larrie Spiece, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Spiece of R. R. 3, Stouffville, recently completed his first year at the University of Guelph. He is presently on an extended 8,000-mile trip to Vancouver and San Francisco before returning to university Sept. 9. Larrie is the only athlete from Stouffville Dist. Secondary School to win a Canadian championship. He took the national shot put title two years ago.

Peterboro visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steckley entertained Mr. and Mrs. V. Norris and Jennifer of Peterboro, Sunday afternoon.

Visit Stirling
Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Morgason and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Dave Thomson and family in Stirling Sunday. Michael returned home with them.

Welcome Wagon
Pat Beeton, who looks after the Stouffville Welcome Wagon, reports a number of people have moved to town during July. They are: Mrs. Mae Calbert, Watson Dr.; Mr. and Mrs. John Eyre, Millard St.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Berry, Rupert Ave.; Mrs. D. Ogden, Elm Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. S. Midena, Hawthorne Ave.; and Mr. and Mrs. Brian Nicholls, Tindale Rd.

Glasses found
A pair of glasses, lost on the 9th Line have not yet been claimed. They were found two weeks ago by Peter Gibbins of Valley Rd., who brought them into The Tribune office.

Annie Margaret Smalley
Funeral service was held in Listowel Saturday for Annie Margaret Smalley who died July 31 at the age of 83. She is survived by her husband, Rev. Wilbur Earl Smalley and two sons — Wilbur of Listowel and Albert of London. There are 11 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Burial was in Listowel.

Sunday visit
Mr. and Mrs. Gord Tarr and family, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wideman and family of Uxbridge.

Garden setting
A lovely garden provided the setting for a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Reg Stouffer and Susan in honor of Pauline Coughlan Friday evening. The home was filled with neighbors and friends who enjoy a buffet luncheon afterwards.

Roberts-Dennis Beautiful flowers for June wedding

STOUFFVILLE — White and peach Gladiolas and yellow Daisies graced the altar of Stouffville United Church, June 22, for the wedding of Peggy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis of Ringwood, and David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Roberts of Unionville.

Rev. James Carder officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given

Winter Fair plans
Royal Agricultural Winter Fair this year will feature the theme "Mother Nature's Open House". It will take place Nov. 15-23 at Royal Coliseum at the CNE park. Over $235,000 in prize money will be awarded in 23 different divisions including dairy and beef cattle, poultry, swine, sheep, field crops, breeding horses, dairy products and vegetables.

In marriage by her father with Barbara Forson of Richmond Hill as the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Debbie Roberts of Unionville and Maureen Hood of Buttrickville. Best man was James Sale of Markham and ushers were Brian Laurie and Robin Hood. Reception was at Stouffville Masonic Hall, after which the couple honeymooned in Florida. They are living at 33 Allanadale Ave., Markham.

Further accolades received

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville's own philanthropist, Arthur Latham, has received further accolades for his donations to worthy causes. The Arthur Latham Foundation recently made a $10,000 donation to the Academy Theatre Foundation of Lindsay. The money is to go to air conditioning the theatre. Mr. Latham has visited the Lindsay theatre a number of times and praised its appearance and operation. He has been a friend for many years of Rex Thomas, past president and director of the theatre foundation. According to a press release, air conditioning is considered a top priority.

The wedding of Peggy Dennis and Murray Roberts June 22 in Stouffville United Church featured a double ring ceremony. The couple is living in Markham.

Although Stouffville Nursery School will not officially open until Sept. 3, the toys are already accumulating in the basement of St. James' Presbyterian Church, where the school will be operating. These youngsters and teacher Norah McElroy try out the new toys. In the back (left to right) are Tami Kimura, 2, Danny McNeil, 18 months, and Stefan Majumder. The front row children are Paula Gilbert, 5, Scott Kimura, 4, and Suzanne Majumder, 6. Don Bernard
