Contract awarded for police station
YORK REGION — Construction contracts for the proposed Southern District Headquarters police building in Richmond Hill were awarded last week after the Ontario Municipal Board ruled objections to the project invalid.
The OMB ruling came in just as tenders for the work were about to expire. The Board of Police Commissioners awarded the contract to Vanbot Construction last Friday, the deadline date.
Aurora Mayor Evelyn Buck and King Mayor Margaret Britnell went to the OMB after the Regional Council voted an additional $355,000 to the building on top of the $1.8 million initially approved.
The two mayors were hoping to force the police commission to redesign the building to cut costs.
Mayor Buck's objection, which was ruled invalid was that three municipalities were not represented at region council when the additional funds were granted.
Mayor Buck termed the structure a $2 million monument to the lawless elements of our society.

Museum may be moving
BROUGHAM — The Pickering Museum, destined to lie partially within the boundaries of Brougham, on 50 acres of land.
Mr. Miller said that airport project officials have said they might be prepared to buy all the museum land.
"If they do that, it will give us enough money to move," he said.
"If the airport is built, most of Brougham will be bulldozed anyway."

Charge laid after theft
STOUFFVILLE — A Stouffville man has been charged with stealing $75 from Phillips's General Store at Ringwood. Charged is Kenneth Stewart McGinty.
Owner Ken Phillips told police that the money was removed from the cash register while he was at the rear of his premises. McGinty was arrested Sept. 12 by York Regional Police.
This information was forwarded to Planning Board, by Police Chief Bruce Crawford in reply to a letter complaining of speeding drivers on those streets.
