STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

Judith MacFarlane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice MacFarlane, graduated recently from Toronto Institute of Medical Technology. She has joined the staff of Toronto General Hospital.

Recognition Service

This coming Sunday will be a special day for Ted Green, newly appointed pastor of St. James' Presbyterian Church. In the evening there will be a Recognition Service. At the same service, Rev. F. H. Cromey, who was minister in both Markham and Stouffville, previously, will be presented with a gift from the church.

Thanksgiving visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Goudie, Barb and Gail visited Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Goudie of St. Charles for Thanksgiving weekend.

Laity Sunday

Laity Sunday will be held at St. James' Presbyterian Church Nov. 3. The service will be conducted by members of the congregation with special music provided by the children's choir.

Hallowe'en party

Stouffville Nursery School is holding a Hallowe'en party for parents and pre-schoolers at 101 Main St. E. (St. James' Presbyterian Church) on Oct. 31 from 2-3:30 p.m.

Lions car draw

Tickets for the Lions' Annual Car Draw and Buffet are on sale in Stouffville drug stores and from Lion's Club members. The dinner will be at the Legion Hall on Nov. 23. A Pontiac Astre will be raffled this year. The $8,000 raised last year went toward new tennis courts in town.

Cancer society meeting

The annual meeting of the Stouffville Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society was held Oct. 7 at the home of Helen Taylor. The Branch received a certificate of Recognition of Campaign Award for being the first branch to reach and surpass its quota of funds.

Return from trip

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jennett of Stouffville have recently returned home after a three-week trip to England, Scotland and Wales. Eighteen and Under Susan Thomas was among the first-place winners in the Markham Fair "Eighteen and Under" class, which includes sewing and cooking.

Kenneth Burkholder

Kenneth Burkholder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Burkholder of Stouffville, died suddenly Oct. 14 in Toronto. He is survived by a daughter, Terry (Mrs. A. Smith) of Dresden and sons, Jeff and Donald, of Sarnia. There are also four grandchildren, two brothers and one sister. Mr. Burkholder was engaged to Marjorie A. Cowper at the time of his death. Interment was Oct. 17 at Stouffville Cemetery.

Giant Spud

Winner of the "Big Potato Contest" sponsored by The Tribune, at the Markham Fair, was Dale Rose of Mt. Albert who brought in a 3 pound, 8 1/4 ounce spud. Georgia Lee Rose walked off with second place, with a 3 pound, 1 1/4 ounce potato.

Other winners up

Ed Baker, R.R. 3, Stouffville, (2 lbs., 8 3/4 oz.); John Woodbine, Markham, R.R. 2, (2 lbs., 3 oz.); Ed Baker, R.R. 3, Stouffville, (2 lbs., 2 1/2 oz.); Wally Assinck, R.R. 2, Stouffville, (2 1/4 lbs.); Melodie Kidd, R.R. 1, Goodwood, (2 1/4 lbs.); Marilyn Norton, R.R. 1, Goodwood (2 lbs.).

Domestic Science Exhibit

Among local people to win awards at the Markham Fair recently was Bonnie MacAloney of Lloyd St., who submitted 25 entries in the Domestic Science Exhibit and won six first place ribbons. She earned a total of 51 points to become the winner of the Thomas Birkett and Son trophy. Second place went to Ethel Wilson of Williams St., who earned 43 points. Individual first prizes went to Mrs. Stan Clarkson, Laura Secord Special; Ethel Wilson, Club House Special; Barbara Clarkson, Top Winner in Pickle Section; Brian Wilson of Claremont; Jane McKee and Wilma Scorrar.

Winner in Markham Fair

William Warnock of R.R. 2, Markham, has good reason to be proud. Two of his cattle took top honors in the herford section of the Markham Fair. His bull, WRW Collector, was the grand champion in the male competition. The winning steer weights 1,200 pounds and is 17 months old. His heifer won the grand championship in the female section. Her name is WRW, Miss Haven and is two years old. There were 40 entries in the show. Mr. Warnock is the owner of WRW Ranch on 19th Ave. east of Dickson Hill.

Karavel, a half-bred Arabian owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bouden, R. R. 1, Claremont, took first place in the Spanish Costume class at the Markham Fair. Fourteen-year-old Christine Money rode the horse in the event. Karavel also placed first in the side-saddle show. The costumes were made by Mrs. Bouden. The horse is trained by Geraldine Bolton. Don Bernard

Needlecraft Awards

First-place needlecraft awards at the Markham Fair were earned by Mrs. Stan Carlson, Jane McKee and Mrs. Robert Baggs, all of Stouffville.

Couple home again

Mr. and Mrs. Almer Fockler are home again after many weeks in hospital, nursing home and convalescent home.

Credit Union Meeting

The Stouffville Credit Union is holding its banquet and annual meeting this coming Monday night (Oct. 28) at the Stouffville Legion Hall. The banquet gets underway at 7 p.m.

Return to England

Mrs. Ada Deru returned to England after spending six weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Marie Jessup of Ballantrae.

Christmas in October

The "Christmas" in October display at the Markham Fair resulted in first place awards for Mary Harris and Wilma Scorrar, both of Stouffville. Mrs. Harris also earned awards for three arrangements she submitted in the flower and plant categories. Mrs. Stan Carlson was given the Fred Leaf Memorial Award for her display of fall berries, colorful leaves and flowers.

Vegetable sinners

In the Roots and Vegetable class at the Markham Fair, first place Stouffville winners were Mel Baker of R.R. 2 and William Clarkson.
