St. James Presbyterian Church

New minister has social conscience

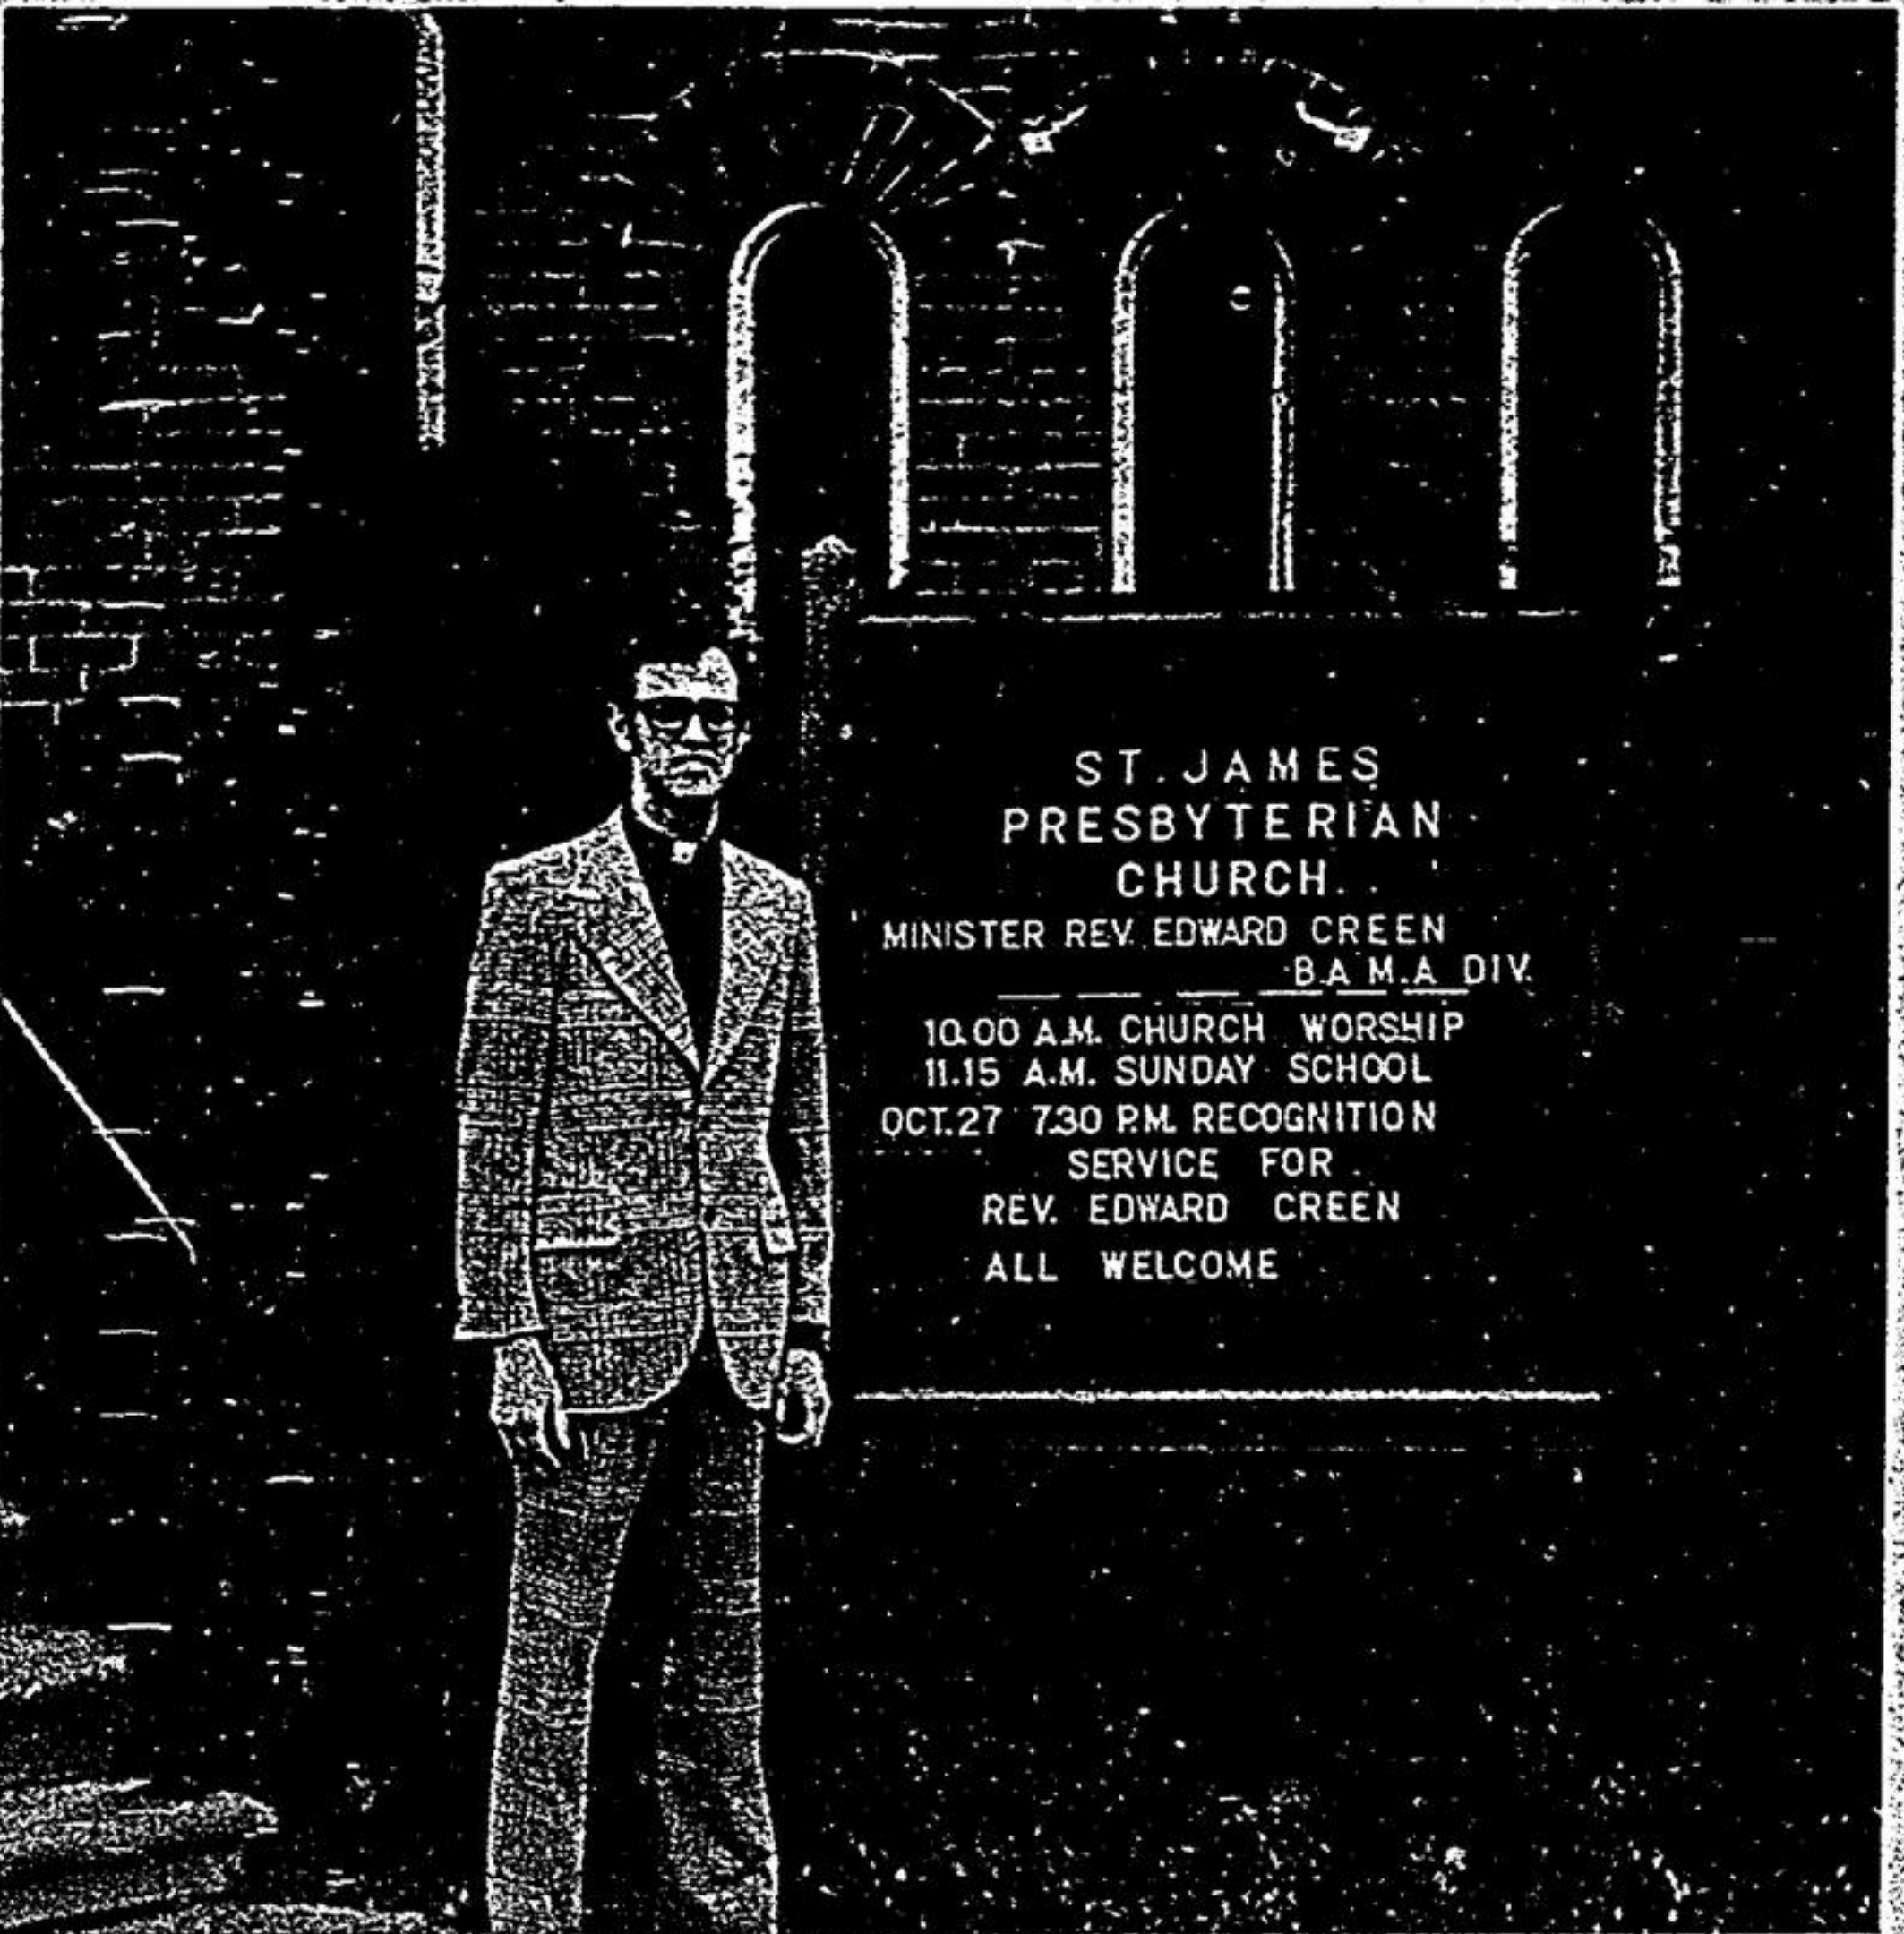

St. James is a very close fellowship. The church is really like a family," said Rev. Ted Green, the young pastor, who began ministering at St. James Presbyterian Church on Sept. 1.

"People are concerned and open and friendly. I haven't seen too much of the town so far. I'm looking forward to moving up here," he added.

Mr. Green at present comes to Stouffville from Toronto on Sundays, and several times through the week. When the new manse behind the church is completed, at around the first of the year, he plans to move into town.

Last May, Mr. Green graduated from Knox College, a Presbyterian seminary in Toronto, and for two months this summer served in a beach ministry at Sauble Beach on Lake Huron.

Now, he is enjoying work as a pastor in Stouffville. "I enjoy the challenge of communicating the gospel to today's needs," he said.

Rev. Ted Green stands in front of St. James Presbyterian Church, his new charge. The young minister says he is looking forward to taking up residence in Stouffville. He says the church has the responsibility of speaking for "social justice and adequate sharing of resources and against political greed."

Eleanor Moyer, Alumnus of year

Miss Eleanor Moyer missionary to the Thunder Bay district for over thirty years, was honored on Friday evening, Oct. 18th, as the Ontario Bible College "Alumnus of the Year."

Miss Moyer, who grew up in Dickson's Hill, was on hand at the Bible College for a presentation of "This Is Your Life" by the O.B.C. Alumni Association. In addition she was awarded a large bronze plaque of the school crest which cited her leadership in the field of Christian Camping and her ministry to the youth of Canada.

This award is the second recognition of this kind she has received within the past few years. Earlier she was presented the "Presidents Award" from Christian Camping International, a world-wide fellowship of Christian camps.

An inscription of her name was also made on a large plaque which listed previous "Alumnus of the Year."

Fragments

Put on armor of God by power of prayer

By Grace Foote Powell

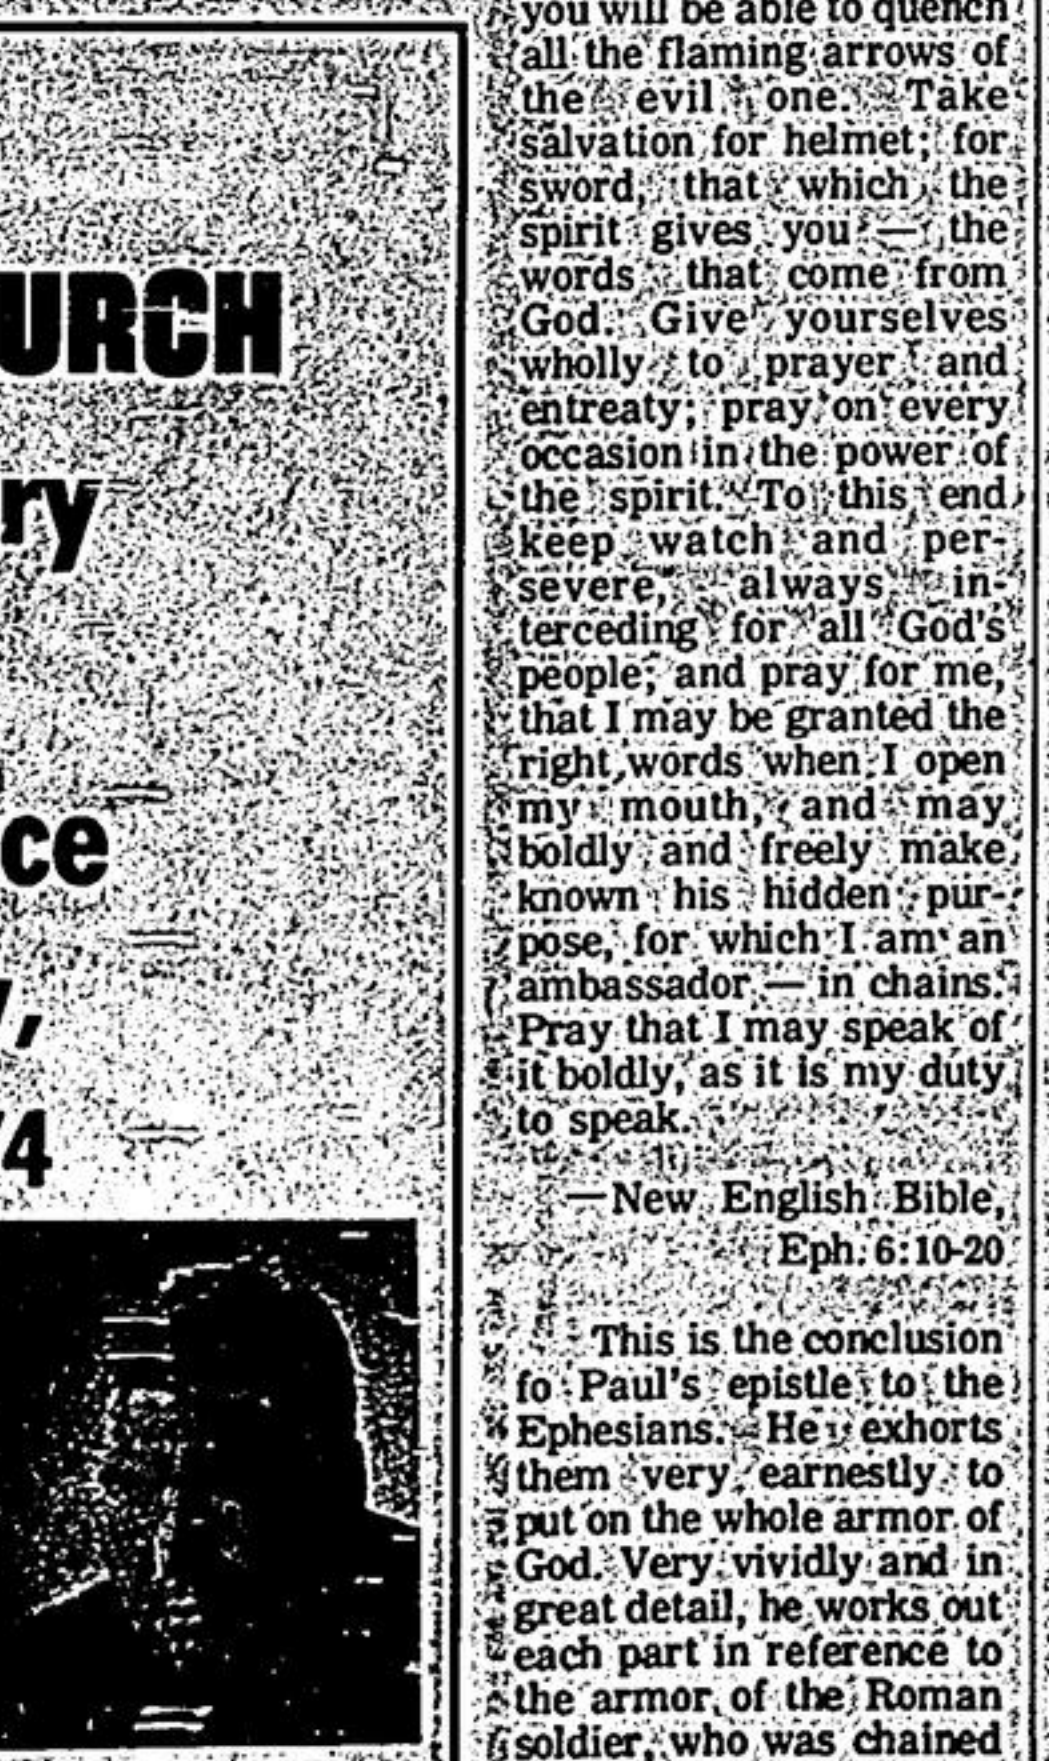

Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. — John 6:12

Finally, then, find your strength in the Lord, in His mighty power. Put on all the armor which God provides, so that you may be able to stand firm against the devices of the devil. For our fight is not against human foes, but against cosmic powers, against the authorities and potentates of this dark world, against the superhuman forces of evil in the heavens. Therefore take up God's armor; then you will be able to stand your ground when things are at their worst, to complete every task and still to stand. Stand firm, I say. Fasten on the belt of truth; for coat of mail put on integrity; let the shoes on your feet be the gospel of peace; to give you firm footing; and with all these, take up the great shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take salvation for helmet; for sword that which the spirit gives you — the words that come from God. Give yourselves wholly to prayer and entreaty; pray on every occasion in the power of the spirit. To this end keep watch and persevere, always interceding for all God's people, and pray for me, that I may be granted the right words when I open my mouth, and may boldly and freely make known his hidden purpose, for which I am an ambassador — in chains. Pray that I may speak of it boldly, as it is my duty to speak.

— New English Bible, Eph. 6:10-20

This is the conclusion to Paul's epistle to the Ephesians. He exhorts them very earnestly to put on the whole armor of God. Very vividly and in great detail, he works out each part in reference to the armor of the Roman soldier, who was chained to him for the day. This is the only way to contend with spiritual powers of wickedness, but it is one thing to have the armor and another thing to be wearing it.

The way to put it on is by the power of prayer. Pray for yourselves. Pray for all God's people, the whole church. Watch and pray. The spirit of Christ helps us to pray and makes intercession for us.

His blood, remedy for sin

A few days ago news reports told of a large python that swallowed the head first. The horns of the animal pierced the skin of the reptile and it died. This large snake crushes the life out of its victim by winding itself around it and tightening its hold. I would feel that the greater reaction would be of satisfaction, in that the victim though dead took the life of its killer.

This story reminds us that all brute creation faces one or more foes seeking their life. It is also a grim reminder that human creation faces many enemies to its very survival, from the poisonous reptile to the unseen germ.

There is however a greater disaster faced by humans than any harm to our natural body. It is a terrible foe that strikes at the inside. It winds its tentacles around the real person who is tenant in our human body. Its effect is so disastrous that many have succumbed to its great power.

I refer to the dread disease known as sin. This malady has ruined more lives, caused more suffering and wrung more tears from human eyes than any other disaster in history.

Earth could produce no cure after many efforts. Heaven had to provide a remedy. It surrendered its Great Prince to come to this disease ridden earth.

His pure, blood, free from sin — infection was the only cure. At the center of the earth with the sin fever raging, He gave His blood as the complete remedy.
