John Lord Proprietor of new bookstore has varied past

STOUFFVILLE — John Lord has had a varied and interesting life with a number of careers. He is the proprietor of a new bookstore aptly named John Lord's Books. The opening is Nov. 1 with Trent Frayne in attendance. — Ted Wilcox

Mr. Lord said he also planned to do a lot of individual ordering.

Summing up why he decided to start the bookstore, Mr. Lord said that, beside the profit motive, he thought there's a need for a bookstore in Stouffville. Any town needs a bookstore.

Regional departments within spending budget

YORK REGION — In the first nine months of this year, the various departments of York Region have spent only slightly over half of their total budget for 1974.

For the nine months ended September 30, the region had spent $16,528,321 out of a total budget of $30,651,000. The information was contained in a report from the Regional Treasurer, John Hlynski, to the regional council.

Roadwork cost $4,867,584, well under half of the total allocation which was $12,319,300. This was the largest single expenditure.

The second largest spending was $4,021,318 under the classification of
