Goodwood library

Frances Sommerville, part-time librarian, in the new Goodwood library is seen here sorting books to have the room ready for the tentative opening date of Dec. 7. The library is located in the room formerly used as the foyer for the old Uxbridge Township offices above Snelgrove Realtors. Books from the old Goodwood library have been taken out of storage and have to be sorted, the shelves have to be arranged and a filing system worked out before the library will be ready. The hours will be Tuesdays from 2-5 p.m., Thursdays, 2-9 p.m. and Saturdays 2-5 p.m.

Parkview news

Missionary, traveller shows slides

Miss A. Fiederlein, teacher, missionary and world traveller showed slides of some of her travels on Thursday, November 21, at the regular Thursday evening program. On Sunday evening, November 24, Mr. Ted Green of Stouffville Presbyterian Church led the worship service in the auditorium. The weather failed to lessen the attendance and success of the Tea, Craft and Bake Sale at Parkview, Home, on Wednesday, November 20. We are grateful to those residents and friends of Parkview who worked so diligently to make saleable articles for the craft room, and a seemingly never ending supply of baked goods. The proceeds from the sale were $1,073.50, and plans are to use this money to purchase shade trees for the west lawn.

On behalf of the Residents of Parkview, the staff and the Ladies Auxiliary, we wish to thank all those who contributed, in any way, to our sale.

Recent visitors include: Zetta Forsyth and Pam Gillion of Hamilton for Zella Gillion and Elva Ridout; Arthur Staley of Brampton for Bells Staley; Allan Doner for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Doner; Gerald Morgan for Margaret Morgan; Audrey and Harry Brother of Montreal for Mrs. Linda Brother; Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy for Mrs. Mary Cowie; Miriam Steckley of Gormley for Ella Coher and Ada Fretz; Alf and Hilda Luxton for August Burkland; Erle Grubin of Picton, Ontario for his mother Sarah Grubin; Anna Drudge for Gussie Hoover; Eileen McIntosh for Ethelwyn Swindell; Muriel Coulson and Ida and Helen Maxwell for David Tran; Allan Larry and Yvonne Jones for Mary Jones; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Horton and Iris Bray of Huntsville for Lily Bailey; Edythe Thom of Ottawa, P. H. Thom of Toronto and Barbara Deutscher of Ohio for Mrs. S. Grubin; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hrenyk for Ethel Lyng; Mrs. George Ham for Mary Hogge; V. A. Stotesbury of Drumbo for Lottie Stotesbury.

Call to awaken out of sin, cast off works of darkness

By GRACE FOOTE POWELL
Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. John 6:2

The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the workers of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. — Romans 13:12

These words of Paul form the central point or nucleus of our thinking in the following days leading up to Christmas known as the season of Advent.

The message is obvious. It is a call to awaken out of sin, carelessness and unbelief in the sense that the dawn of the second advent is now a year nearer to each of us. It is a call to "cast off" as unworthy the "works of darkness". It is a call to "put on the armour of light," which is the Lord Jesus Christ — to seek union with Him. With such armour the warrior is safe. Jesus said: "Behold I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." (Rev. 3:20) He is always present to do his part, but the choice is with us. He knocks, but He does not force the door; we must open it.

I would like to quote a very old and magnificent collect for the Advent season. It is a double prayer — for resurrection in spirit now, and for resurrection in body and

Voice of Bethel Adversary to God and man works untiringly

By REV. HOWARD MINAKER

England has reacted with anger and horror to the latest L.R.A. bombing in Birmingham. This took some seventeen lives and injured many more. For many months Britishers have had to be suspicious of parcels or mail items being delivered to them. Defence against such "cloak and dagger" methods is hard to maintain. Vietnam is a prime example of how a mighty nation could be humbled by trying to fight a hidden enemy.

In our natural life each one of us has hidden enemies with which we must cope. One of the great foes to our well being is sickness and disease. Our great skills in medicine and modern equipment has helped, but not answered the needs of multiplied thousands of infirm, crippled and diseased.

While any sickness that attacks the body is bad, a sickness that attacks the soul and spirit is worse.

Our body will be laid away after a few years; our inner or the real person, lives on. Like air to a bird, fun to a child, sun to a plant or gas to a car, so this inner person must have God to be happy.

Satan, the great adversary to God and the human family, has worked untiringly to keep us from God. Jesus Christ engaged him in mortal combat at Calvary. He dealt our adversary a fatal blow. So complete was this victory of the Lord Jesus, He came back with the keys to both death and hell.

Now all who come to Him can be saved from sin and be truly happy.
