Special program at Missionary church

By EVELYN MILSTED — A special Musical Program will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 19, at the Missionary Church, Gormley. Women's Institute will meet at 8:15 p.m. Jan. 22, at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith. The roll call, a gift for a cancer patient, Gerlie Baycroft will present the Gazette, Mrs. C. Boynton and Mrs. Rae McClure will be guests and the Annual Convention report will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise received word that their daughter, Lucille, who is nursing in Kentucky, was involved in a car accident. Her car was wrecked, but Lucille escaped with minor injuries, although some other nurses were more seriously injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barrett of Toronto had supper on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett.

John Campey left this past week to spend several months in Mexico with Canada World Youth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doner welcomed a baby sister this week for son Mark.

Annie Yeo, an Uxbridge resident who is well known here, had the misfortune to break her ankle and is in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital.

Annual meeting set for Jan. 22

By MRS. W. SANDLE VIC. SQUARE — There were 14 tables of Euchre players at the Community Hall on Friday evening of last week.

Prize winners were: Ladies: Mrs. E. Woodcock; Edith Lafferty; Mrs. Anne Fraser. Men: Roy Coffey; Henry Allen, and Ernie Kelman.

Lucky draw was won by Mrs. Kay Power. Another Euchre party will be held in the Community Hall on Friday evening, January 24th at 8:00 p.m. Everyone welcome!!

The annual congregational meeting will be held in the Sunday School room on Wednesday, Jan. 22 at 8 p.m. Will Those who have reports kindly hand them to Mrs. John McCague, as soon as possible.

Sympathy is extended to former residents of our community, Rev. and Mrs. James Bewell, now of Cardiff, in the passing of Mrs. Bewell's father, Alfred Pickles at Barrie. Speedy recovery is wished for Heber McCague who is in the York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

Birthday greetings to Mayor Anthony Roman, Jan. 17; William Sandie, Jan. 17; Darlene Nichols, three years, Jan. 17; Rev. Martin Jenkinson, Jan. 19; Mabel Sanderson, Jan. 22.

Mrs. Mary E. Willis

Ex-Vandorf resident

GORMLEY — Mrs. Mary E. Willis, wife of the late Ralph Willis of R. R. 1, Gormley, died at Mount Sinai Hospital Jan. 6 at the age of 88.

Mrs. Willis was born in Whitby Township, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Michael. In 1912 she married Ralph Willis and lived at Pine Ridge Farm on Don Mills Rd., north of Vandorf until her husband's death in 1941.

Mrs. Willis was very active in church and community work and served on the Vandorf School Board for many years and was a life member of the Vandorf Women's Institute. In that organization she was president and district president.

A faithful member of the Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Willis sang in the church choir and taught Sunday school for many years.

Mrs. Willis moved to Toronto to live with her oldest daughter and during that time turned the sod for the Albion Gardens Presbyterian Church in Rexdale.

Two years ago failing health forced Mrs. Willis to enter Lincoln Place Nursing Home, where she lived until her death.

Funeral service was held Jan. 9 at Ward's Funeral Chapel in Weston with burial at Pine Orchard Cemetery.

She is survived by four daughters — Mary (Mrs. R. Richardson) of Rexdale, Annie (Mrs. Bruce Reid) of Welland; Ruth (Mrs. John Sheridan) of Stouffville; and Jean (Mrs. Philip Rushbrook) of Coldwater. She also had one son, Edward of Lively, 20 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.
