Presbyterian Centennial

STOUFFVILLE - Since 1975 marks the centennial of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, St. James Presbyterian Church in Stouffville made plans at their annual meeting to support a project to commemorate the centennial.

John Heard and Charles James, Murray Painter, was re-elected for a three-year term, and Mrs. M. Watson, Trevor Watson, and Walter Whale were all re-elected to four-year terms.

The project involves the some aspect of the denomination's work with the Canadian Indians. Rev. Ted Green said they hoped it would be both a learning and fund-raising experience.

At the congregational meeting of the Stouffville Pentecostal Church it was learned that "every department in church showed an increase numerically and financially," last year, according to Rev. Stan Grant.

Also at St. James, a committee was appointed

Retiring from the board of deacons were Ronald Hiltz and Willi Klein, while Grant Hall of R.R. 2 Markham and Robert Norris of R.R. 3 Goodwood came onto the board.

Voice of Bethel Jesus' true church undefiled by world

By HOWARD MINAKER

Recent negotiations between the Anglican, United and Church of Christ Disciples have resulted in a delay of the union of these three churches. Many people are keenly disappointed at this outcome. Somehow they felt should this union come it would be a great forward step in the progress of the church of Jesus Christ.

One of the pet excuses of our people is "Why so many churches?" They never ask "Why so many countries, governments, businesses or clubs?" Before I could get very interested in political church unity, I would have to be convinced that the "TRUE CHURCH OF CHRIST" is divided.

As I read the Word of God the true followers of Jesus Christ gather around the person of their Ascended Lord to worship Him and the Father in Spirit and in truth for the Father seeketh such to worship Him. No building makes a church nor does any denomination.

Members of Christ's true church must be saved from their sin and have Jesus Christ dwelling in their hearts by faith. They may gather in an edifice, a house, a field, underground, in various denominations or anywhere to worship Him. Many of the greatest works of grace in human hearts have taken place outside the

Menonite lectures scheduled

MARKHAM - This year the Menonite Churches throughout the world are celebrating the 450th anniversary of the founding of the group. The eight churches in York Region are presenting a series of lectures this week to commemorate the anniversary.

Dr. Walter Klassen, author and teacher, will speak on three consecutive evenings on the subject - "Anabaptism: Neither Catholic nor Protestant".

The lecture will be given Feb. 14-16 at 7.30 p.m. at Wideman Menonite Church on Highway 48, south of 18th Ave.

Dr. Klassen has done major work in translating 16th century Anabaptist writings into English. At the present time he is teaching history and religion at Conrad Grebel College, part of the University of Waterloo.

In the evening music was provided by a group called Harvest and Rev. Rumble spoke again. Sunday morning, Rev. Winston Thurton spoke to the young people. He gave an address at the concluding rally in the afternoon.

According to Rev. Andrew McNiven, pastor
