STOUFFVILLE — The weather co-operated and youngsters came by the hundreds to enjoy the Mardi Gras Saturday.

The sleigh rides and snowmobile rides were enjoyed, but the biggest attraction of the day was the tent set-up by the Stouffville Firemen to distribute free hot dogs.

Gord Lewis was there with his work horses to pull the huge sleigh around the park. But it was mostly a day for children.

The Stouffville Kinette Club had a refreshment stand in Latham Hall where they dispensed coffee and donuts for the nominal charge of 15 cents. That was well-received on the frosty afternoon.

The evening skating party saw some unique and unusual costumes. One of the great mysteries of the night was the identity of a blonde lady wearing a grass skirt. That one won the $15 prize as the best comic costume. It was none other than Jim Thomas.

Ivan and Gale Harris were the top couple with Herb Yakely winning the prize as the best male costume. Mrs. Alice Hamm was tops in the lady's section.
