These girls have been busy distributing posters like the one above to advertise the film "The Cross and The Switchblade" to be shown March 7 at 7 p.m. at Stouffville Dist. School. The film is sponsored by the Inter-School Christian Fellowship at SDSS. The club, which is made up of several fellows as well as girls, has also been attempting to publicize the film through leaflets and advertisements. From left to right in the front row above are: Sheri Eby, Susan Hawkins, and Sandra Eby. In back: Linda Laflaur, Esther Wideman, Joyce Hutchinson, and Arlene Boettger. Ted Wilcox

God's false messengers

Recent news reports affirm the concern of Senator Edward Kennedy over U.S. arms sales to the Middle East.

How unusual that, within a few months, mini-powers dependent on the larger nations for almost every decision, have suddenly changed the course of history. The eyes of the world are turned toward the centre of the earth, wondering if they might turn off the oil supply. These nations are arming, with the help of the great powers, who are working ceaselessly to outsmart each other. This is not unusual, however, to the follower of Jesus Christ. It is clearly prophesized in the Word of God.

The only ones who have the right to face the future without terror are the true children of God, born of His Spirit and washed in His blood.

In our day, Israel has become an independent nation. Some 2,500 years was this prophecy in being fulfilled. Some Bible scholars, weary of waiting, said it meant something else and ceased to look for its fulfillment.

Recently, I read a blasphemous article in a large religious periodical on Revelation. The writer tried to picture this prophecy as the apostle John's bungling attempt to get a secret message to the churches, which he said was unsuccessful.

My Bible says God gave the Revelation and we hear the Glorified Lord speaking saying, "I am He that liveth and was dead and behold I am alive forevermore." No one, professing to be a messenger of God, has any authority to substitute for his own ideas God's message. Such persons become false messengers.

World day of prayer unites congregations

Goodwood Club executive elections

STOUFFVILLE — Next Friday (March 7) is a very special day for the ladies of Stouffville. It is the annual "World Day of Prayer" and women from four Stouffville churches are getting together for a service. It will begin at 1:30 p.m. at St. James Presbyterian Church on Main St. in Stouffville. Speaker for the meeting will be St. James' pastor, Edward Green. Women from Christ Church Anglican, Roman Catholic, Stouffville United and St. James' are sponsoring the service.

Baby sitting will be provided and women of all faiths are invited to attend.

Women from all over the world take part in this one-day meeting. The program this year called, "Become Perfectly One", is standard throughout the world.

The theme was chosen by the Women's Ecumenical Prayer Fellowship of Egypt.

GOODWOOD — The 1975 executive of the newly-formed Goodwood Youth Club was elected at an organizational meeting Friday night at the Community Centre.

Doug Bell was named president. Membership are available to residents of the old Uxbridge Township between the ages of 13 and 17.

Other members of the executive include John Armstrong (vice-president), Terry Rowe (secretary), and Barb Rowe (treasurer). There were also committee chairmen named Terry Hockley (food), Christine Dellow (clean-up) and Mike Rowe (disciplinary).

One of the greatest needs is for adults willing to act as chaperones. The success or failure of the youth club depends on the number of chaperones available, according to Brian Plewes.

The youth club will operate each Friday evening at the community centre. For information call Mr. Plewes at 640-2767.

Not all R.R.S.P.'s are alike.

Consider the Toronto Dominion Retirement Savings Deposit.

The TD RSD is a bank deposit. That's the big difference. Its attractive interest rate is adjusted twice yearly to match that of the TD five-year Certificate of Deposit. And you never have to worry about fluctuations in the market value of stocks and bonds as you would with some other R.R.S.P.'s. Finally, there's no interest penalty for deregistering your TD RSD at any time.

As with all R.R.S.P.'s, eligible annual contributions are deductible from your current taxable income — up to $4,000 in some cases. So depending on your circumstances, the 1974 income tax you defer can be substantial.

For example, if you're an Ontario resident earning $15,000 per year, have a spouse without an earned income, two children under 16, and no company pension plan, you're allowed to contribute $3,000 to a TD RSD. A $3,000 reduction in your taxable income will result in a current year tax deferral of $1,024!

That same person contributing 5% of their earned income to a company pension plan can contribute up to $1,750 and make a 1974 tax savings of $600.

Your TD Manager is the person to ask about a TD Retirement Savings Deposit. You'll get all the facts, and you'll be pleased to know that you can start for as little as $250 with contributions of $100 or more whenever you wish. But hurry, March 1st, 1975 is the deadline for the 1974 tax year.

TDRSD ITS TIME IS NOW.

Mail strike causes movie cancellations

STOUFFVILLE — The Women's Auxiliary of St. James Presbyterian Church were responsible for the program which was held on Thursday, evening, February 20.

Two films which were scheduled to be shown to the residents on Friday were cancelled due to the mail strike. They will be shown as soon as they can be sent out.

The Sunday evening worship service was conducted by Rev. John Hamilton, Pastor of Stouffville Missionary Church. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Thom were guest singers.

We wish to sincerely thank all those who attended the official opening ceremonies of the Parkview Apartments on Saturday, February 22. We hope you enjoyed the opportunity to visit the apartment units and be among the approximately 300 visitors. Thank you again for your interest in housing for seniors in our community.

"Some of my best friends are cows, and how I helped some very nice people without realizing it."

BY WALLY CROUTER

hand. But if all of a sudden there's a strange voice in the barn, you get a bad reaction from the cows."

I say a little bull in the barn never hurt anything. Some of the stories really move me, like when people have accepted me as part of their family. One particular story I remember, a little on the morbid side, but this woman said that she and her husband always listened to the show and they had been married for years and years. They accepted me as a friend even though we had never met.

Now her husband was an invalid and one morning she went down to make him tea and when she came back up I was still talking but he was dead. So I was the last voice he heard.

She said, "I don't know what this means to you, but having you there then seemed natural to me, you were very close to both of us."

Another story was about this man and woman whose only son was killed in a car accident.

It was such an emotional upset to the wife that the husband had to quit work. He had to take a leave of absence, and they had to visit a psychiatrist.

This was their only son, so the doctor said that there obviously had to be some kind of substitute in the woman's life.

One morning they're sitting listening to the radio and the husband says, "Well, why don't we adopt Wally Crouter as our son? Could you be content with that, that all of a sudden he's taking the place of our son? In that way you're not alone. If I do go back to work, you'll have somebody with you all the time."

So they adopted me as their son. I didn't know anything about it until they came to see me three or four years later.

I was making a personal appearance and a very nice looking couple came up and explained everything. Now, of course, the woman was back to normal and they had come to release me back to myself again.

The husband said, "You're released, you don't have to be our son anymore. You didn't know, but you were. We still listen to you, but we've adjusted ourselves to our problem. But you filled such an important part at that time, we felt we just had to let you know."

That sort of story kind of makes you humble because although you tend to look on the radio show as just a job, I think you do perform a service in people's lives.

Respectfully yours
Wally Crouter
