Voice of Bethel World held in the grip of selfishness

By HOWARD MINAKER
Although we have passed the first day of Spring cooler weather seems extremely reluctant to release its hold on the country. In a more rigid manner our world is held mercilessly in the vice-like grip of greed, passion, selfishness and hopelessness. It's human inhabitants under the domination of Satan have turned paradise into a wilderness. So complete and irreparable was the human plunge downward that no natural remedy could help.

as they crowned with thorns the Son of God, mocked Him, tortured Him and then nailed Him to a cross.

Nevertheless, the greatest reversal ever; was displayed here as God made an instrument of cursing a symbol of blessing. The mysteries of the event are best summed up in the words, "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins the just for the unjust that He might bring us to God."

Life came under the power of the great enemy Death. He went lower than the grave and entered into the prison house Hades.

On the third day the shout of victory sounded as the heavenly messengers declared He is not here HE IS RISEN. So complete was his victory that His shout of triumph included the words, "I am He that liveth and was dead and behold I am alive forevermore and have the keys of hell and of death."

The great climax came as the Prince of God sent various messengers to entreat and warn the rebels, to mock, tortured and killed them. Last of all he sent His Son saying "They will reverence my Son." Moral turpitude reached its lowest point

Craft group given grant

Hearing date change on street name

STOUFFVILLE - The Town's application to change the name of Cemetery Lane to Davis Ave. will be heard May 12, 1975, not April 28 as previously announced. Residents of the road have asked council to change the name. They say that the name Cemetery Lane lessens the value of their homes.
