

The Grade 6 girls of Claremont Public School not only play volleyball well, but also worked hard to raise money for trophies and crests. In a recent tournament they lost the grand championship to Lincoln Ave. Public School. Golden age luncheon enjoyed

By ANNE LONEY CLAREMONT — Over 30 members enjoyed the Golden Age Club's Anniversary Luncheon on Thursday, March 20. Coming between St. Patrick's and the first day of Spring, with Easter a short time away, the buffet table was set with a medley of Spring Flowers, St. Pat's and Easter decorations. A Birthday cake beautifully iced by Mrs. Doug Norton, centered the table. Jean Hamilton brought a small favor for each one present. Euchre prizes, which carried out the Easter theme, were won by Georgie Forsyth, Tom Hammond and Gertie Dennie. Ella Hammond won the door prize.

David Bass, Recreation Director for the Town of Pickering, was on hand to answer members' questions and to give information about the new club building which is almost ready to use.

The bad weather Wednesday evening of last week did not prevent a good number of players from attending the Euchre sponsored by the Lionettes. Sixteen tables were played. Winners were: Ladies, Jean Hamilton, Rene Rennie, Debbie Uzzell. Men: Gordon Gauslin, Eric Winterstein, Joey Borland. Linda Gauslin won the grocery hamper. Shirley Pilkey, chairman of the fund raising committee, says that all monies raised by the Lionettes, go to local community expenditures.

Winners at the community euchre last week were: Ladies, Mrs. Frank Jenkinson, Wendy Lake, Judy Carruthers. Men, Martin Gall, Robert McBeth, Mrs. Frank Hawthorth (substituting) Kenny White was the Lone Hand winner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Evans have returned from a nine day tour to Daytona Beach Florida. While there they enjoyed a trip to Disneyland. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hamilton of Markham stayed in the Evans' house while they were away.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hockley and son, Greg, are home from a holiday in Clearwater, Florida. They add several interesting side trips and had lunch with Mrs. Jack Norton of Claremont who spends her winters in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Sanderson of Kingston were guests of Mrs. Sanderson's mother, Mrs. Nelson Sanderson. Their son, Stevie, is staying with his grandmother until his school classes reopen.

Mrs. Edward Friedrich is convalescing at home after a stay in Centenary Hospital.

Jean Drake and Rosemary Timms members of the chorus, were in attendance when the Markham Melody Makers Barber Shop

Chorus had a half hour singout at the official opening of the Thornhill Community Centre Saturday, March 15, and Monday evening, March 17, when they sang at Markham Lodge Nursing Home.

Easter Sunrise Service will be held in the Baptist Church Sunday, March 30, at 6 a.m. followed by breakfast in the Sunday School room.

The Mission Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Keith Drake Monday March 31, at 7:45 p.m.

The Humane Society is asking parents not to buy baby chicks and ducklings as Easter gifts for their young children. These frail little creatures often end up with broken legs and wings, and suffer from hunger and thirst because a lot of people don't care or don't know how to care for them. Even Peter Cottontail sometimes is a very unhappy Easter Bunny.

remember her with love, a daughter, Marjorie (Mrs. Douglas Morden) grandsons, Lloyd and Larry and granddaughter Mary Lou Morden. A son Dickie died in infancy, a brother, Norman Wilson, deceased.

The late Mrs. Byers was a life long member of the Greenwood United Church. She was active in the U.C.W. and attended church regularly.

Funeral Service were held in the Greenwood United Church on Monday afternoon March 17, with Rev. T.H. Fleetham in charge. Relatives, old friends, new friends and neighbors were present to show their respect for the life she had lived among them.

Interment was made in the family plot in Salem Cemetery. Honorary Pall bearers were, Milton Pegg and Ernest Trimble. Pallbearers, Tim Oliver, Kenn McTaggart, Wm. Brown Jr., Peter Bendle, Ronald Brown and Edward Pascoe.
