

Dear Saturday Night: Certainly I'll invest in your renaissance and my own pleasure. But I warn you, I expect nothing less than a superb magazine, month in, month out. As promised, so delivered, right? Very well, here's one for me,

At ten issues a year and a newsstand price of $1 a copy, I will save $2 on a year's subscription, $6 on two years and $10 on three. So here's my choice:

$8 for one year $14 for two $20 for 3 years

one for a friend.

It would be selfish of me to keep all your promised joy to myself. So please send a subscription to my friend below and do (do not) say who sent it.
