Three youths charged after motor stolen

STOUFFVILLE — Three Musselman Lake youths have been charged with theft over $200 in connection with the removal of a car motor from behind a building on Main St. in Stouffville. Ian Cuthbertson, reported to police, a Ford motor valued at $250 was taken last Friday. Charged are Steven Guenther, 17, of Valley Rd., Brett Cashman, 16, and Patrick Cashman, 17, both of Hillsdale Dr. The youths were held in custody pending a court hearing this week. According to police the engine has not been recovered.

Car destroyed

A car valued at $1,000 was completely destroyed on the weekend after a short circuit caused the vehicle to catch fire. The car, belonging to Brian Hood of Markham, was parked on the 6th conc. of Whitchurch-Stouffville when it burst into flames. Whitchurch-Stouffville Fire Department attended.

Public mischief

Kenneth Harman of Main St. W. in Stouffville has been charged by York Regional Police with two counts of public mischief.

Mr. Harman was arrested about an hour after the doors of Shea

Real Estate and Kimburn and Capley Law Office had been kicked in. According to police reports Mr. Harman was stopped on another matter and as a result of investigation he was charged with public mischief. Police allege Mr. Harman had been drinking at the time of the incident.

Dealership entered

John Roe Ford was broken into last week when someone broke a hole in the glass of a rear window, unlocked the window and entered. The coke, coffee, bubble gum and peanut machines were pried open and several keys were stolen from the office. Damage was estimated at $50.

Bad cheque

Supreme Lighting and Electric Supply, Laidlaw Blvd.,

Markham, may have to absorb a loss of $1,115 as a result of a bad cheque they received in payment for electrical supplies and light fixtures.

Signs smashed

Vandals smashed two signs valued at $200 by throwing stones. The damage was done to signs belonging to Cancor Collision, Laidlaw Blvd., Markham.
