Victoria Square

150 come back for reunion

By MRS. W. SANDLE VIC SQUARE — The bi-annual re-union of the Victoria Square Young People's Union was held in the Community Hall on Saturday, May 10, with over 150 in attendance. Frank Brumwell was chairman. This group was formerly known as the Victoria Square Epworth League. The afternoon was spent renewing old friendships.

Following the delicious Pot Luck supper, Mr. Floyd Perkins acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Mabel Sanderson and Mr. Heber McCague related some of the experiences that happened during the years of the organization.

A telegram was read from Dr. Evelyn Gee of Vancouver, regretting that she was unable to be present.

Mr. Mervyn Pickering led a sing-song accompanied by Mrs. Jim Barker at the piano. Mervyn also sang several solos, which were very much enjoyed.

Prizes were given to the following. The person having a birthday nearest May 10: Mrs. Wm. Rennie, (Marjorie Hart) of Scarborough. Couple married the longest, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sanderson of Richmond Hill, 57 years on June 5; oldest lady present, Mrs. Alice Perkins; oldest man present, Mr. Clarence Stong; person coming the longest distance, Mrs. Marie Shaw, (Marie Dennie) of London, Ont.; Guessing the number of Smarties (candies) in a jar, Russell Boynton; of Woodbridge, guessing the names of the people in pictures taken years ago was won by Mrs. Harvey Collard.

It was decided to hold another such re-union in two years time with the following committee in charge, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. John McCague and Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan. It was interesting to note that two former ministers were able to be present, Dr. and Mrs. A.F. Binnington and the Rev. and Mrs. Martin Jenkinson of King City.
