REAL ESTATE SALES WIN TIMBERS

Selling real estate is probably the most challenging and interesting sales position in the world today. It is a Full Time Job and it won't be easy, but you will be proud of your efforts.

We will add two or three sales persons to our present staff. Ideally we would look for some sort of business training, however, previous experience is not necessary. We are more concerned with integrity and self-reliance gained through maturity.

If you are retired and you find time heavy on your hands and mind, or if you are fast becoming a retired mother or housewife and you feel the world is passing you by. Then you are our people with maturity, integrity and self-reliance. We have a need to serve and know people and a desire for knowledge.

If you are interested in a business, where your rewards in personal satisfaction and income are limited only by your own ambitions and willingness to work hard, call Fred Cook.
