God takes serious view of murder

By Rev. Howard Minaker
 Federal jail guards are threatening to go on strike unless the Trudeau government observes the law on capital punishment.

After much comment, publicity and a free vote in parliament, capital punishment was retained. However our government has neglected to observe the law it is bound to uphold.

The Bible speaks on this subject in these words: "Whoso sheddeth man's blood by man shall his blood be shed, for in the image of God made He man."

God takes a serious view of one human deliberately terminating the life of a fellow human. He requires that a murderer's life be forfeited. The laws of an All-Wise God are not made to injure His Creation but are made to bless and protect. God's Son Jesus Christ came to earth to acquaint its inhabitants with another law. It is greater than any other, more powerful than any commandment. Many waters cannot quench it. Hottest fires cannot destroy it. Extreme suffering cannot injure it. Earth's greatest armies never can conquer it, and sin like a flood cannot overwhelm it.

It takes the murder out of the heart so it never gets to hands. It takes the sadness out of the life so joy prevails over sorrow. It sends worry and anxiety fleeing like darkness before light.

It not only has the power to bring its recipients to heaven but it presently brings foretaste of heaven to them. I refer to the law of LOVE. This love was manifested in Jesus Christ and its forgiveness and power will be given freely to all who will come to Him.

Greenwood news

Huge turnout for Pegg reunion

By Mildred McTaggart
 Susan Crawford, who has been home and under the Doctor's care for the past few weeks, is improving.

Brian Baun, John Bleasdale, Michael Brooks, Scott Byberg, Steven Hoar, Anne Hornov, Derek Martin, Bill Middleton, Mary Mowbray, Marilyn Outhouse, Kim Snowdon, and Keith Wilson were some of the 34 Grade 8 graduates from Valley View School. John Bleasdale was the Valedictorian, Keith Wilson won an Athletic trophy and Mary Mowbray a French award.

Over one hundred attended the annual Pegg reunion at the Claremont Conservation area on June 22nd.

June 29th was Decoration Day at Salem Cemetery. The Rev. James Hooe of Ajax Presbyterian Church was the guest speaker. The Claremont Band led in the music, and as the trumpets and horns rang out over the valley we remembered again with grateful hearts those who have gone before us. The oldest tombstone is that of Samuel Jones who came from Somersetshire England and was buried there in 1819. The Jones of Mount Zion are descendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pegg and family of Windsor spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pegg.

New high reached in recycling depot usage

Hours for the Stouffville Recycling Depot are 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, not 6 to 8 p.m. as previously reported. Other hours are: 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Thursday and Saturdays.

Since last week's Tribune article, depot organizer Jean Belisle tallied all the families using the depot and came up with a new high: 415 families. She reports that the depot has managed to sell all their material so far, so depot users should not hesitate to continue bringing their glass, tin, cardboard and newspaper.

One especially lucrative item for the depot, interestingly enough, have been returnable pop and beer bottles. The depot recently returned enough bottles to stores to collect over $50.

Staff changes at Claremont school

GOODWOOD — The annual Loyal Orange Lodge Ontario County North Church Parade was held this year in Goodwood. The church service was conducted by Rev. Archie Scott at Goodwood United Church last Sunday afternoon.

Prior to the service members paraded from the Goodwood Orange Hall to the church.

CLAREMONT — Some changes in staff will take place at Claremont Public School next fall. Doug Middleton will be leaving his post as grade 8 teacher to teach at Dallington, P.S.; North York. Replacing Mr. Middleton will be Rick Fockler, who teaches Grade 4 in Claremont at present. Filling Mr. Fockler's job will be Pat LaRose of Uxbridge. This will be Mrs. LaRose's first teaching post.

Finally, Grade 5-6 teacher Chris Fockler is moving on to take on duties of teaching physical and geography at Joseph Gould Senior Public School, Uxbridge. There will be no Grade 5-6 class next year.
