Voice of Bethel Pleasure, treasure of earth not enduring

The horse racing world has been shocked by the sudden tragedy that crippled and killed the undefeated filly Ruffian. Doctors report it was the extreme tension that caused the injury. Commentators praised her size, record and mentioned her larger breathing capacity. Spectators jammed the track on the Lord's day to cheer for their respective choice. Suddenly, it was all over as Ruffian lost to Foolish Pleasure.

Many hopes, and many dollars, disappeared in a moment as tragedy destroyed it all. This picture has been flashed many times and the record played over and over, trumpeting the uncertainty of this world's perishing hopes and possessions.

I am not sure how Foolish Pleasure got his name, but I am certain it could refer to circumstances known to each of us by those very words. These words describe the character of any pleasure of earth that deserts its participant in the hour of need. It depicts the nature of the fickle hand that withdraws support, mocking its plaything at the height of indulgence.

No pleasure or treasure of earth is enduring because of our uncertain life and its perishing nature. That which we see and sense with our natural faculties is dissolving and disintegrating.

Jesus said, "Whoever drinks of this water shall thirst again; but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." O glorious reality!

Mr. and Mrs. William Briggs celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with an open house on the weekend. Mrs. Briggs told The Tribune when she was married people said "It would never last." The couple said they have had some pretty hard times but have never regretted their marriage. Mrs. Briggs said when they were married they felt it was for life and they have never considered breaking up.

UXBRIDGE — Eleanor Todd. She favoured allowing the request on a trial basis only.

This will be the result of a decision made during the last meeting of township council. Councillor Joe Esmonde received a request from a group of local young people who asked that they be allowed to use the barn in Elgin Park. They plan to hold "evangelistic" meetings open to the public and the first such event is scheduled for July 13.

Those making the request include Steven Black, Keith Kennedy, and Donald Leek, all Uxbridge residents and graduates of Uxbridge Secondary School. In a letter read by Mr. Esmonde, Mr. Leek said that he and his group "recognize a spiritual need in the people of Uxbridge and the surrounding area."

"The question for us is whether or not we want to encourage this sort of thing in the park," said Esmonde. "We have certain elements in town that might cause a lot of trouble at this kind of meeting."

"I'm sure they know the problem they might run into," said councillor down there camping in your tent or trailer and this was going on next door?"

While there was some sentiment in favour of restricting the meetings to the hours of 8 to 10 p.m., council voted down an amendment to this effect. On a motion by councillor Bill Ballinger it was agreed to allow the meeting on the 13th and another on the 20th without reference to hours. A report will be submitted by the organizers before council allows any further meetings.

"That means it could go on until midnight," the mayor said. "How would you like it if you were

Diamond anniversary Commemorates happy day

By ANNE LONEY CLAREMONT — When Alberta Chrysler and William Briggs were married on July 7, 1915, at Whitewood Grove in Hilliard Township in New Ontario, there were only a cluster of houses and a school house in the tiny hamlet. The only religious services available were visits from young students, studying for the ministry. Consequently, the young couple were married at the home of Alberta's parents where the Rev. Herbert Lee of New Liskeard came to officiate at the ceremony. Last Saturday, July 5 Mr. and Mrs. Briggs celebrated their Diamond Wedding Anniversary at an Open House in the United Church Sunday School Room. The very pretty petite bride received in a formal length peach and white gown with a corsage of pink roses; the tall, good looking W. J. had a white carnation in his lapel.

When they were married 60 years ago there were no florists where the Briggs lived; but there were wild daisies, blooming in abundance and they were used as decoration. In memory of that long ago happy day, daisies were again used to decorate the Sunday School Room.

The Briggs lived on their farm in the north for 26 years. They came to Toronto in 1942, where Mr. Briggs was 22 years with the A. R. Clark Tannery, before moving to Scarborough. Claremont welcomed them in 1966. They were and are the best of neighbors. For years they supplied accommodation for the senior citizens, heating the hall and keeping it in good condition with no charge at all. In Scarborough Mrs. Briggs cared for over 30 children's aid babies. They had seven children of their own, 28 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

At open house on Saturday were their immediate family — daughters Mrs. Thelma Marshall and son Timothy of Dartmouth N.S. Ruby and son-in-law Henry Veley and family of Arden Ontario; son-in-law Jack Winterburn and family of Bramalea; Doris and son-in-law Metro Holdniuk and family of Canfield; Sons Russel and Thomas Briggs and family both of Scarborough and grandsons Ivan Porter and family of Arden and Harvey Porter and family of Lindsay. Daughter, Rita, Mrs. George Jones of Goodwood died two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Briggs were delighted with the Letter of Congratulation from Queen Elizabeth and one from Premier Bill Davis who sent them a plaque. They were also the recipients of a plaque from Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau.

MOTORISTS — FIGHT BACK AGAINST HIGH GASOLINE TAXES
 How does the average motorist fight the recent 10¢ per gallon extra tax on gasoline? One way is to buy less of it. But there is another way. We have letters from drivers who have used Moly Slip "E" in their cars and who claim anywhere from $5 to 25¢ greater gas mileage. Moly Slip "E" is not an oil treatment, it's an engine improver, even though you add it to your oil. It reduces friction. It reduces engine heat. And best of all it reduces gasoline consumption. You can get Moly Slip "E" at Canadian Tire Stores or other leading automotive centres. One treatment with Moly Slip "E" will last 6,000 miles, even through oil changes. Then if you haven't increased gas mileage with Moly Slip "E", mail your proof of purchase to Moly Slip (Canada) Inc., 705 Progress Avenue, Unit 57, Scarborough, Ont. M1H 2M1, and we will refund your money. Could any offer be fairer than that?

Use hot water wisely
Save energy... Save money

Apart from home heating, a family usually consumes the most energy in producing hot water. Here are just a few small things you can do, that can add up to a considerable energy saving. Turn off hot water taps so they don't drip, fill clothes washers to match the size of the load, wait until you have a full load before using a dishwasher and remember showers usually require less hot water than baths. Try not to use more hot water than you need.

Cascade The Cascade electric water heater will give you a dependable supply of hot water, but it's up to you to use it wisely.
