Hard-working crafters produce 14 quilts

By Mildred McTaggart GREENWOOD — Mr. and Mrs. Stan Outhouse are pleased to have a niece Mrs. Leslie Zimansky, her husband and two children who have motored from Los Angeles Cal. with them for a visit.

No church services will be held here the first four Sundays in August while our minister Rev. T. H. Fleetham is on vacation.

There has been no steadier working group in the church than the Quilters, who have finished their fourteenth quilt since January, an average of one every two weeks. They too, are taking a well deserved holiday. Already orders have been taken for the Fall. A great deal of credit for the success of this group is due to Mrs. Edna Clarke and Mrs. Vernon Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. (formerly Jean Pegg) Robt. Lister of Amherstberg called on relatives here this past week.

Private park draws complaints

COPPIN'S CORNERS — The Greek Camp Ground here, a private park, continues to bring complaints from nearby residents. The park is located east of Goodwood.

Last week, complaints again arrived at the Uxbridge council chambers to ask for help. Speaking for the residents, Mrs. Ward told of annoying music broadcast over a P.A. system on Sundays, along with trespassers, who use neighboring properties as bathroom facilities.

Mayor Carl Puterbaugh told the delegation that "we've tried every means possible," to close the park, but that "I'll keep pushing."

AIDA CLEANERS

Will be closed July 28 to Aug. 9 inclusive for vacation
