Fire guts bedroom

By Mildred McTaggart
GREENWOOD — Fire broke out in the upper storey of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Eyes, Westney Rd., last Wednesday evening just as the family were beginning their dinner. They were alerted by a neighbor Wm. Coles who noticed smoke coming from the upper window. The fire department quickly responded to the call, and were able to get it under control. One bedroom was completely gutted, while the other upper rooms were badly damaged by smoke, heat and water. Mr. and Mrs. Eyes have two children Barbara and Chris. A shower of gifts and good wishes were received by Steven Goodwin and Nancy Love when a group gathered in the C.E. Building Monday evening Aug. 11. Their marriage will take place Aug. 23 in the Bethesda United Church, Mississauga. Mrs. Elmer Pittman entertained the quilting ladies to an afternoon tea at her beautiful old stone house on the Salem Rd. Thursday. A number of Greenwood people enjoyed the Centennial Celebrations at the old Mount Zion school Sat. afternoon and evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pegg of Peterboro have been visiting with relatives in the area this past week. John Hornov was taken to Oshawa Hospital on Friday where he had an operation on his foot which was badly bruised when run over by a riding lawn mower.

Boarded up houses, many now being demolished for the Pickering airport, are mute testimony to the sad spectre of century houses reduced to rubble by bulldozers. This one is located on Sideline 24, south of the 8th Conc. —Don Bernard
