

W.I. booth known as 'hospitality corner'

DURHAM REGION Three Women's Institute branches in Durham Region are taking an active part in the International and World Plowing match to be held later this month. Women from 30 W.I. branches will take charge of the "hospitality corner" situated in the regional tent, where homemade cookies, tea and coffee will be served to the many people visiting the plowing matches Sept. 23-27.

Visitors to Canada will be honored by receiving a W.I. name tag and will be invited to sign a guest book. Brochures and literature will be handed out and a public relations display depicting the work carried out by the W.I. movement will be featured.

There will also be an exhibit of handwork made by W.I. groups and a 4H Homemakers Club display. Crafts will also be demonstrated each day.

Last Chance..

...to make sure qualified voters have been correctly included on the Ontario list of voters.

Revision of the Ontario list of voters for changes and additions ends in the Returning Office, Wednesday, September 10 at 9:00 p.m. EDT. If you have not been enumerated, or you have found your name has been omitted from the list of voters, or there is an error on it, contact the Returning Officer of your Electoral District.

If you live in a rural area, and are qualified to vote, it's much easier if your name is on the list of voters. And there's still time to get on that list. However, qualified rural voters, not on the list by Election Day, may still vote by having a friend or neighbour on the same list "vouch" for them on oath.

Remember, it's your last chance to make sure you are included on the list of voters.

YORK NORTH: If you live in Stouffville, Aurora or Newmarket, your Returning Officer is Leslie Hagell, R.R. No. 1, Gormley. Phone: 727-1371 (collect if necessary).

Cable TV sponsors phone-in program

STOUFFVILLE — The three candidates in York North riding will appear next Tuesday on Classicom Cable 10 phone-in program.

Progressive Conservative William Hodgson, Liberal Margaret Britnell and NDP Robert Lewis will be in the Cable 10 studios and will respond to questions from "home viewers" and questioners in the studio.

The forum is underway at 7 p.m. The phone-in format has been used by Cable 10 in both the federal and municipal campaigns and has proven to be "informative and exciting," according to a Cable 10 press release.

Viewers are asked to keep their questions brief, so that the largest number of issues can be covered. On election night Sept. 18, Cable 10 will provide up to the minute poll returns and commentary by local residents and members of the press.

Phone-in numbers are — 884-8111, 889-9874 and 887-5075.
