'Zappy' Zampaloni hits road for world demolition derby

CLAREMONT — Ken 'Zappy' Zampaloni hit the road today for the Annual World Championship Demolition Derby at Long Island, New York.

This is the fourth year in a row Zappy has attempted to become the first Canadian winner of this event.

The race will be held Sunday, Sept. 28, and will be shown later on an American network program called Sports Spectacular.

Zappy, who has two sponsors this season, is confident his 1964 Ford Country Squire station wagon will be able to stand up to the punishment meted out by some of the toughest demolition drivers in North America.

Players' area revamped in arena

STOUFFVILLE — week. The new arrangement provides a separate area for the timekeeper.

In other business, a revised constitution was approved by those present. Among other things, the executive is empowered to expel "any member" for continued "bad behavior" during the season.

Some discussion of equipment regulations was also held. In answer to a question, OHA representative Ed Grimshaw said that, as yet, "there will be no rule saying kids have to wear face masks."

It is recommended but not required, under OMHA and OHA rules that referees wear helmets as well. Local house league refs will be wearing helmets, however.

Thanks given

The all-star squirt boys offer their thanks to Clare McGuckin of the Credit Union for taking the team to lunch following their play-off bid loss.

Performing well as umpires in the games have been Dwight Goden and Bill Carruthers.

The house league banquet is planned for Oct. 8, 6 p.m. at the Claremont Legion Hall.
