Runners do well at York Invitational meet

STOUFFVILLE — Jim Brazier was the top Stouffville runner Saturday at the York County Invitational cross-country races.

Volleyball SDSS volleyball teams performed well in tournaments over the weekend.

Chippewa of North Bay. In the semi-finals contest the seniors lost 15-6 and 15-13 to Pickering.

Gloria Mintz, third, Susan Beelby, 7th; and Michelle Sainsbury, 14th. Although Orchard Park and Summitview tied for second in points, a better-finishing place by Orchard Park's eighth-place runner Cathy Henderson, broke the tie and earned Orchard Park second.

Bay — championship tournament recently, will play in the all-Ontario tournament tomorrow in Bolton. Soccer In soccer, the SDSS juniors played to a 1-1 stalemate with Huron Heights last week.

Also for the midget boys, Bob Hughes was 22nd, Mark Herold 66th and Tim Brown 95th. SDSS was eighth out of 48 teams.

For the junior boys, Duncan Manser of SDSS was 26th out of about 350. John Fockler led the senior team and finished 55th in a field of 275 runners.

The Stouffville girls had three teams entered: our grade 8 and two high school teams. The high school "A" team was led to an 18th-place finish by Shelley Smith, who was 69th out of 325.

SDSS's overall standing was 10th out of 40 teams.

The next meet for SDSS is Oct. 15 in the York County Championships at the Vivian Forest.

Hockey dance

STOUFFVILLE — The minor hockey fundraising dance at Cedar Beach will be Friday, Oct. 17, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Tickets are $5 per couple and available at Mickey Hunt's Sunoco and from members of the executive.

Coach Rehili cited setter David Laing and Eugene Reesor as being outstanding in the tournament. Another stand-out both offensively and defensively through the day was Mark Wideman.

The York County volleyball championships will again be held at SDSS this year, on Oct. 25. Last year the three SDSS squads swept the championships.

Public school meet After an exhibition encounter the week before, the public schools ran "for keeps" last week at the high school in a cross-country meet.

In the girls' race, practice continued to pay off as the SDSS grade 8 girls totalled a miniscule 37 points.

In semi-finals the juniors trounced Barrie Central this time, 15-3 and 15-9.

Some observers believe an Alliston infraction went uncalled in the final play.

Outstanding players in the tournament were spikers Lloyd Johnson and Mike Lafleur and setters Ken Benson and Steve Schell. Also, Owen Heise stood out with his defensive blocking.

The juniors played without the aid of a coach as Jim Rehili travelled with the seniors to Sudbury for the Laurentian Senior Invitational tournament.

The seniors came out second in their group of five teams, defeating Francojeunesse of Sudbury, L'ellen of Sudbury and

In the boys' race, Summitview runners again sped to victory with a score of 54. The Grade 8 boys from the high school were second with 77 and Orchard Park finished third.

Summitview's Ted Waite of Grade 8 topped the race, but Orchard Park nailed down the next four places with Gary Legault second, Mike Regill third, Jeff Culverhouse fourth and Scott Brown fifth.

Other top Grade 8 runners were Bob Fretz (eighth), Neil Davis (sixth), Neil Davis (seventh) and Allan Davis (10th).

Scott Frisby led Orchard Park by finishing eighth. Doug Snowball ended 9th, Doug Snowball 12th and Jim Dart 13th.

More races will be held today at SDSS, beginning 3:45 p.m.
