Mary MacAloney, 85 Albert St. North, found this warty 18-pound turnip while picking up the ones a turnip picking machine missed. She was helping on the farm of her uncle, Howard Doner, at R. R. 2, Cannington. According to Mary, her uncle has grown turnips for about four years at Cannington and he farmed on the 9th of Whitechurch - Stouffville before that but he has never seen another turnip as large. Mary, who is 13 years old and attends Stouffville District Secondary School admitted they haven't got the faintest idea what they will do with the gargantuan vegetable.
