Only One can overcome death

By HOWARD E. MINAKER
Recently a lady parachutist plunged 2,500 feet to her death near Cameron, Ontario. The main part of her parachute failing to open, was given as the reason for the tragedy. One hundred and eight times before she had successfully performed this dangerous feat. The next time took her life. I daresay she felt quite safe and counted on this performance being as successful as others.

Although pain, sickness and death are almost as old as our creation itself, we never seem to become accustomed to them. Sickness enters as an unexpected, unwelcome intruder. Pain makes us wince and recoil and death presses tears from our eyes and groans from our hearts.
All the efforts of man to deal with this merciless trio have been far from successful. They have ruthlessly dragged kings from their thrones, prostrated powerful generals and snatched loved ones without warning. The best human efforts can only relieve pain, treat sickness and, perhaps, postpone death.

There is only One who ever successfully dealt with these foes. Pain fled at His Work; Sickness dissolved with His touch and death released its victim at His command. While man provided no royal carpet for His sacred feet, the waters of the sea became a carpet for Him as He walked on their surface. In His final battle, with these enemies, He accepted the pain and sickness in His own body. He entered into death to taste death for everyone. Now He offers healing for spirit, soul and body and promises a Home in Heaven where pain, sickness, death and tears are forever gone.

First major step to Christian School to be taken tonight

STOUFFVILLE — The Missionary Church in town will be the scene of a meeting tonight, Oct. 30 that could well be the first major step in establishing a Christian School in the area.

Dr. Daniel Edmonson, administrator of the People's Christian School, will be on hand to discuss the concept and answer questions.

The purpose of the meeting is to elect a "functioning committee" to start planning for the school. Interim Steering Committee Chairman David Barker said that all those interested in supporting a Christian School should attend the meeting.
It will be underway at 8 p.m.
September, 1976 is the tentative date for the school opening.
As well as interested lay people, a group of professional educators are also working with the interim committee.

BUY NEW CANADA SAVINGS BONDS

New Canada Savings Bonds — one of the best things you can do with your money. They offer you a great combination of security, income and flexibility.

They're secure, because Canada Savings Bonds are backed by all the resources of Canada.

Family heirlooms displayed

Our regular song leader on Sunday evenings, Leonard Hoover of Markham, was kind enough to lead the entire service on Sunday evening, October 26.

At a residents' "Show and Tell" Tea Party on Wednesday afternoon, October 22, many residents from the home and apartment brought momentos that had been in their families for many years and gave a short history of these items. For example Harriet Kerr brought a teapot that had been in her family for 150 years. Ida Leary has an engagement ring that belonged to her grandmother. Jenny Moyer has a hand-carved sewing kit that is also very old. Gussie Hoover has a piece of linen that was woven by her great-grandmother from flax that was grown in Markham.

Members of the Stouffville Missionary Youth Group participated in the Thursday, October 23, program.

Mrs. Randall, a grade 4 teacher at Orchard Park School in Stouffville, was responsible for a Variety Program for the residents, on Friday evening, October 24.

Recent visitors to Parkview included: Howard and Darlene LaRose of Ingersol for Nellie Bond; W. A. and Alma Slack for Mr. and Mrs. Wes Slack; Mr. Stirling of Stouffville for Martha Patton; T. E. Penny of Elmira for Olive McDowell; Geo. and M. Coulson of Barrie for Frances Neate; Andrew and Bessie Hall of Bright for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hawtin; Mrs. Reddick of Markham for Bertha Crosby; Phyllis McEachern and Mary Leishman of Markham for Annie Walker; Anna Dudge of Wroter for Gussie Hoover; M. Ridgeway for Mrs. Atkinson; M. Ross of North Bay for Mrs. W. A. Ross; D. Cooke and E. Downer for Ida Tindall; Mrs. Thomson for Marjorie Haslett; T. J. McDowell of Leaskdale for Dan Wagg; L. Sherman for Della Turner; The Cockwell family of Waterloo for Mrs. Atkinson; Ian Wilcox of Scarborough for Louisa Conorton; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rattée of Brampton for Frances Rattée;

Deceptive business practices hurt everyone.

This is what Ontario is doing to protect you.

We have a new law in Ontario called the Business Practices Act. Its purpose is to prevent unfair business practices in sales to the public. Here's what the law does:

- it prohibits false, misleading or deceptive tactics in the sale of products and services.
- it prohibits too high prices, unfair contracts and high-pressure sales methods.
- helps people get their money back if a seller has taken unfair advantage of them.

The Province of Ontario wants you to get your money's worth when you buy. Expensive items such as cars and homes require a lot of thought, so the Government of Ontario has prepared some simple booklets that tell you what to watch out for when you buy, explaining the do's and don'ts about:

- "Buying a Car"
- "Buying Real Estate"
- "Buying a Condominium"
- "Getting a Mortgage"

You can also get a booklet called "Balance in the Marketplace — The Consumer's Guide to the Business Practices Act."

If you would like a copy of any of these booklets, or if you wish to report an unfair business practice, write now to:
