

Senior citizens' bazaar

By ANNE LONEY
CLAREMONT — Another well-known Claremont resident has passed away. William Perry Boyington died in the Cottage Hospital at Uxbridge on Wednesday, Oct. 29. His many friends were hoping that he would soon be able to convalesce at home, but it was not to be. A kindly man, he was very well liked by all who knew him.

Mr. Boyington was born in Markham. He lived there until his marriage to Lucy Dawson, after which they made their home in Uxbridge until 10 years ago when they moved to Claremont.

Our sympathy goes to his wife, Lucy, three sons,

William Jr., of Islington, Bruce of Colgan and Clifford of Powassan, a brother, Harold of Markham, a sister Myrtle (Mrs. Davidson) of California, and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the McEachnie Funeral Chapel in Pickering Village on Friday, Oct. 31, at 2 p.m. with the Rev. E.S. Linstead of Claremont United Church officiating. Interment was in Erskine Cemetery, Pickering. Pall bearers were Harold Baylis, William Bacon, Ross Evans, Reg Hoskins, Tom Hammond and George Boynton.

The Senior Citizens are holding their Bazaar, bake sale and tea in the Bowling Green Club House Thursday, Nov. 20, at 2 p.m. The Executive is hoping that all members will contribute and endeavor to come and make this event a big success. Any contributions to the White Elephant table will be appreciated.

Senior Citizens trips to Scarborough Town Centre and the Royal Fair are being planned.

The Morning Unit of the U.C.W. is holding a meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl Cook Nov. 10, at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Cook will be in charge of the program. The Roll Call: "A Decoration For The Christmas Tree."

All ladies are invited to the Coffee Morning in the Baptist Sunday School Room Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 10 a.m. Pearl Hutchinson of Dickson's Hill will speak. A baby sitting service will be provided.

Over 30 friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Alan Redshaw Wednesday evening, October 29, for a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mary Yernoy of Brock Rd. and Jim Kennedy of Claremont. Assisting Mrs. Redshaw were Sylvia Ryan and Marie Hedges. Mary and Jim will be married in St. Francis de Sales Church in Pickering on Friday, Nov. 14.

Naturalist Edge Pegg counted 25 Turkey Vultures flying overhead while recently driving through the Uxbridge hills. This was the largest flock he had ever seen in Ontario. Evening Grosbeaks, Juncos and Tree Sparrows have already arrived from the North; just a reminder for those who care for the winter birds that it's time to ready their feeding stations.

The 1st Claremont Cubs and Scouts Group Committee is holding a meeting in the Community Hall Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 7:30 p.m. All parents of Cubs, Scouts and Venturers are urged to attend. A new committee must be organized to ensure the future of Scouting in Claremont. We regret the oversight of last week. The number of boys participating in Apple Day should have read "22," instead of 2.

Mrs. Cliff Reynolds and Mrs. Ernie Baker treated their long time friend and neighbor, Mrs. Fred Madill, to a chicken dinner in Manchester on the occasion of her 88th birthday Saturday, Oct. 25.

Brougham Union Lodge is holding a public euchre in Claremont Masonic Hall on Friday, Nov. 14 at 8 p.m. There will be prizes and lunch will be served.
