

Region refuses funds for consultants

DURHAM REGION management committee last week that a Toronto architectural firm be authorized to do a feasibility study on a regional headquarters. The recommendation was criticized on the grounds that the costs involved in the study and the cost of the study couldn't be determined at this time because the parameters of the study weren't yet clear.

Unionville high school 7th priority

YORK CTY. — A $3.2 million secondary school in Unionville has been given seventh priority in York Region public school board's 1976 capital expenditure forecast.

The forecast was approved by trustees here last week but now needs ministry of education okay. That's not expected until "sometime next year," board officials said Monday.
